

WORSHIP AT ELEVEN
FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

January 30, 2022

The Fourth Sunday after Epiphany

WELCOME TO FIRST CHURCH!

If you are visiting today and looking for a church home, welcome! For more than 169 years our Covenant has been: We covenant with the Lord Jesus Christ and one another, and bind ourselves in the presence of God to live together in all God's ways as revealed to us by the Holy Spirit and holy scripture. The church acknowledges that all members have the right of individual interpretation of the principles of the Christian faith and respects them in their honest convictions. In accordance with the teaching of our Lord, the church recognizes two sacraments: Baptism and Holy Communion.

*Enter to Worship – Depart to Serve. Please use this time for quiet preparation for worship.
'We have waited in silence on your loving-kindness, O God, in the midst of your temple.'
(Psalm 48:8)*

CHILDREN'S TIME

Mr. Williams

A reading from the book of the prophet Jeremiah, chapter 1.

Now the word of the LORD came to me saying, “Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations.” Then I said, “Ah, Lord GOD! Truly I do not know how to speak, for I am only a boy.” But the LORD said to me, “Do not say, ‘I am only a boy’; for you shall go to all to whom I send you, and you shall speak whatever I command you, Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you to deliver you, says the LORD.” Then the LORD put out his hand and touched my mouth; and the LORD said to me, “Now I have put my words in your mouth. See, today I appoint you over nations and over kingdoms, to pluck up and to pull down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant.”

L: May light break forth on God’s Holy Word.

P: Thanks be to God.

A reading from Paul’s first letter to the Corinthians, chapter 13.

If I speak in the tongues of mortals and of angels, but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing. Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. But as for prophecies, they will come to an end; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will come to an end. For we know only in part, and we prophesy only in part; but when the complete comes, the partial will come to an end. When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became an adult, I put an end to childish ways. For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then we will see face to face. Now I know only in part; then I will know fully, even as I have been fully known. And now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is love.

L: May light break forth on God’s Holy Word.

P: Thanks be to God.

1. O Sav - ior, let me walk with thee in low - ly paths of ser - vice free;
 2. Teach me thy pa - tience, still with thee in clos - er, dear - er com - pa - ny,
 3. In hope that sends a shin - ing ray far down the fu - ture's broa - dening way, tell me thy se - cret; help me bear the strain of toil, the fret of care.

 in work that keeps faith sweet and strong, in trust that tri - umphs o - ver wrong.
 in peace that on - ly thou canst give, with thee, O Sav - ior, let me live.

A reading from the Gospel according to Luke, chapter 4.

Then Jesus began to say to them, “Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.” All spoke well of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They said, “Is not this Joseph’s son?” He said to them, “Doubtless you will quote to me this proverb, ‘Doctor, cure yourself!’ And you will say, ‘Do here also in your hometown the things that we have heard you did at Capernaum.’” And he said, “Truly I tell you, no prophet is accepted in the prophet’s hometown. But the truth is, there were many widows in Israel in the time of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, and there was a severe famine over all the land; yet Elijah was sent to none of them except to a widow at Zarephath in Sidon. There were also many lepers in Israel in the time of the prophet Elisha, and none of them was cleansed except Naaman the Syrian.” When they heard this, all in the synagogue were filled with rage. They got up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town was built, so that they might hurl him off the cliff. But he passed through the midst of them and went on his way.

L: May light break forth on God’s Holy Word.

P: Thanks be to God.

OUR LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.

ANTHEM

He Comes to Us

Jane Marshall

He comes to us as One unknown, without a name, as of old, by the lakeside; He came to those men who knew Him not. He speaks to us the same word: ‘Follow thou me!’ and sets us to the tasks which He has to fulfill for our time. He commands. And to those who obey Him, whether they be wise or simple, He will reveal Himself in the toils, the conflicts, the sufferings which they shall pass through in His fellowship, and, as an ineffable mystery, they shall learn in their own experience Who He is.

O Morning Star, how fair and bright Thou beamest forth in truth and light! O Sovereign meek and lowly.

Thou Root of Jesse, David’s Son, My Lord and Master, Thou hast won My heart to serve Thee solely!

Thou art holy, Fair and glorious, all victorious, Rich in blessing, Rule and might o’er all possessing.

—Albert Schweitzer (The Quest for the Historical Jesus); Nicolai, trans. Catherine Winkworth

Update from Covid Task Force (January 20, 2022)

As long as our health systems are overwhelmed with hospitalizations, the Task Force recommends First Church continues to pause our in-person worship services into the month of February. The Task Force will monitor the evolving situation and will meet again the week of January 31st to assess current trends. In the meantime, First Church is evaluating and developing a plan for further air mitigation strategies to ensure best flow of clean air in our spaces. That date is yet to be determined, so please continue to stay connected with First Church.

We ask that you continue to care for yourself and others. In preparation for a return to in-person worship, we ask that the congregation assist us in the following ways:

- Be fully vaccinated (vaccinated and boosted, if eligible).
- Wear medical grade masks.
- Continue social distancing and good hand/health hygiene.
- Become engaged and signed up for an account with REALM, one of our communication mechanisms.
- Consider being part of our growing Hospitality Ministry to welcome people to First Church. (Contact Rev. Emily Corzine ecorzine@first-church.org or Greg Halbe, Senior Deacon-Elect, greghalbe@gmail.com). The Task Force will continue to update you on our plans as they evolve. Thank you for your patience and understanding.

The Covid Task Force

Livestream Ministry Seeking Volunteers

The Livestream Ministry is seeking volunteers to join the team that is extending our Sunday worship services to online viewers in Central Ohio and beyond. No video production experience is needed. The team provides the training, and the permanently-installed equipment is straightforward to use. Extend your worship by being a part of our congregation's Extravagant Welcome to members and visitors.

Online worshipers are members of our faith community participating from home or while traveling. We also have viewers that are seeking a spiritual resting place or simply enjoying First Church's preaching and music. The current team of three is looking to at least double its size as we aim for a one-Sunday-service-a-month commitment level. The commitment each Sunday is 30 minutes before the start of worship through the end of the service. There is the potential for offering recording and streaming services for weddings, memorial services, and other events in the sanctuary and parish hall as well.

Interested or ready to join? Contact Peter Murray (peter@pandc.org) or Emily Corzine (ecorzine@first-church.org). If you have questions, ask any of the livestream ministry team members: Peter Murray, Janet Newcity, and Mike Kennedy.

Global Mission Partner

Karen Campbell-Nelson, Indonesia

Karen Campbell-Nelson serves with the Evangelical Christian Church of West Timor in Indonesia. Artha Wacana Christian University, where she teaches, comprises six faculties, including a theology faculty that offers both an undergraduate program and a graduate program. The university serves mostly Protestant students from several islands in eastern Indonesia including Timor. Many of the students come from relatively remote villages and would not otherwise have access to higher education.

She teaches several courses in both the undergraduate and graduate programs including theological English, gender and theology, and social research methods. She also sits on the editorial board of the graduate program's academic journal, Eureka, and coordinates a cross-regional research program on women, culture, and research. This work is in keeping with the university's goals to equip young people and pastors with knowledge and skills to serve in a rapidly changing, pluralistic society.
