

MORNING PRAYER AND HOLY COMMUNION AT NINE
FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
 UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

April 24, 2022

The Second Sunday of Easter

WELCOME TO FIRST CHURCH!

If you are visiting today and looking for a church home, welcome! For more than 169 years our Covenant has been: We covenant with the Lord Jesus Christ and one another, and bind ourselves in the presence of God to live together in all God's ways as revealed to us by the Holy Spirit and holy scripture. The church acknowledges that all members have the right of individual interpretation of the principles of the Christian faith and respects them in their honest convictions. In accordance with the teaching of our Lord, the church recognizes two sacraments: Baptism and Holy Communion.

The liturgy of Morning Prayer is a form of daily worship adapted through the ages that has its earliest roots in our Jewish heritage. Its premise is one of praying to God at the beginning of the day—giving thanks for another day ahead. The service falls roughly into three main parts: Opening sentences and singing/reading of the Psalms; readings from Holy Scripture - usually one from the Hebrew texts, and one from the Gospels - interspersed with ancient songs of the church; and prayers. To this we add Holy Communion, bringing further meaning to the totality of the prayers we have already offered. The liturgy presupposes full and hearty congregational involvement in the spoken and sung responses, preparing us to be sent forth from this house of worship into the wider world to live out the Great Commission.

THE FIRST READING

Acts of the Apostles 5:27–32

Rev. Ahrens

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles, chapter 5.

When the temple police had brought the apostles, they had them stand before the council. The high priest questioned them, saying, “We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and you are determined to bring this man’s blood on us.” But Peter and the apostles answered, “We must obey God rather than any human authority. The God of our ancestors raised up Jesus, whom you had killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior that he might give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him.”

L: The Word of God for the people of God.

P: Thanks be to God.

THE SECOND READING

John 20:19–31

Rev. Corzine

A reading from the Gospel according to John, chapter 20.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the authorities, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained." But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe."

A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

L: The Word of God for the people of God.

P: Thanks be to God.

1. Let all cre - a - tion bless the Lord, till heav'n with praise is ring - ing.
2. All liv - ing things up - on the earth, green fer - tile hills and moun - tains,
3. O all you peo - ple ev - ery - where, lift up a hymn of glo - ry;

MISSION INVITATION

Rev. Corzine

Designated gifts go to the Ohio Environmental Council, whose mission is to secure healthy air, land, and water for all who call Ohio home. The OEC believes one of the best ways to make progress addressing climate change and environmental problems is at the local level where leaders are less partisan. Such leaders are more prone to listen to constituents who are asking for more sustainable, livable communities with permanent, clean economies. The Ohio Environmental Council's vision is a clean, beautiful Ohio where diverse people, innovation, and all of our natural treasures thrive. Thank you for your generosity.

OFFERTORY HYMN

4. That when our life of faith is done, in realms of clear-er light from one who spoke as none e'er spoke, but we be-lieve him near.

 to call on you when you are near and seek where you are found:
 may we be-hold you as you are in full and end-less sight.

FCC Organist Alumni Gala

This Sunday, April 24, at 4 p.m. we present a joyful program to celebrate the 50th anniversary of Congregational Concerts as well as the 50th anniversary of the Beckerath organ that graces our Gallery. To do this, we present a program featuring many of the alumni organists and choirmasters of First Church.

Reaching back to 1968, John Schaefer, now living in Kansas City, will be with us. Following Canon Schaefer, Organist and Choirmaster Emeritus G. Dene Barnard shares several of his favorites over the years. Marti Rideout, twice interim Minister of Music, will be featured as narrator in the large William Albright work, "The King of Instruments." Jamie Bobb returns from St. Olaf to share in the festival, and finally, current Minister of Music Kevin Jones will play a work from the upcoming Beckerath CD as well as play the organ part in the Albright.

This will be a giant celebration of more than 50 years of service to First Congregational Church and its love and support of fine music. Following the concert, a gala reception will take place in the Parish Hall to properly fête our guests and properly toast 50 years of the ministry and outreach of music in our communities. Please make plans to join us for this very important milestone in our life together.

BREAD'S Nehemiah Action on May 10 Will Focus on Environmental Justice

In the coming years, Columbus will experience increased rainfall and flooding due to the warming climate. The impacts on people are likely to be more mold in homes, particularly in vulnerable neighborhoods, and more respiratory and heat-related illnesses.

The BREAD Organization's Nehemiah Action on Tuesday, May 10, will focus on these environmental impacts. Members of First Church's Justice Ministry Network are recruiting church members, friends and neighbors to attend this in-person event from 6:40 to 8:30 p.m. at the Celeste Center on the Ohio State Fairgrounds.

BREAD's research found that Columbus has less tree coverage than comparable cities. Trees are important because they mitigate flooding and their shade reduces urban heat. BREAD proposes to work with city officials and other decision-makers to craft a private tree protection ordinance. BREAD also proposes to further research the mold problem and to encourage greater recognition of its danger to human health.

Virtual Coffee Hour

The next Virtual Coffee Hour is Sunday May 1, at 10 a.m.

Global Mission Partner Nishan Bakalian, Lebanon

Nishan Bakalian serves with the Union of Armenian Evangelical Churches (UAWCNE) in Lebanon. Headquartered in Beirut, Lebanon, the UAWCNE throughout the Middle East supports a network of churches, schools and institutions. It primarily serves the needs of the Armenian communities in the countries where they reside after having been displaced from their historic homelands early in the 20th century.

Mr. Bakalian supports these ministries by serving alongside the clergy and lay leadership, by training and mentoring young leadership, by encouraging those who sacrificially serve here, and by offering his musical, linguistic and administrative expertise to churches and schools. He also serves by speaking, preaching, and writing in the Armenian language, and by occasionally extending this same effort to a sister church union in Armenia, the Evangelical Church of Armenia.

He notes that one of the greatest challenges facing the region, as well as the UAWCNE, is the departure of many Christians, including Armenians, from the region. There is a severe lack of financial resources in Lebanon as fewer people are left to support the ongoing work, while basic costs of living skyrocket. A less-than-transparent governmental system as well as regional and international struggles lead many of the brightest, most talented, and most principled youth to emigrate from Lebanon for what they consider a better future.
