

WORSHIP AT ELEVEN
FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

June 19, 2022

The Second Sunday after Pentecost/Proper 7

WELCOME TO FIRST CHURCH!

If you are visiting today and looking for a church home, welcome! For more than 169 years our Covenant has been: We covenant with the Lord Jesus Christ and one another, and bind ourselves in the presence of God to live together in all God's ways as revealed to us by the Holy Spirit and holy scripture. The church acknowledges that all members have the right of individual interpretation of the principles of the Christian faith and respects them in their honest convictions. In accordance with the teaching of our Lord, the church recognizes two sacraments: Baptism and Holy Communion.

*Enter to Worship – Depart to Serve. Please use this time for quiet preparation for worship.
'We have waited in silence on your loving-kindness, O God, in the midst of your temple.'
(Psalm 48:8)*

CHILDREN'S TIME

The Rev. Joanna Samuelson

A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah, chapter 65.

I was ready to be sought out by those who did not ask, to be found by those who did not seek me. I said, “Here I am, here I am,” to a nation that did not call on my name. I held out my hands all day long to a rebellious people, who walk in a way that is not good, following their own devices; a people who provoke me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens and offering incense on bricks; who sit inside tombs, and spend the night in secret places; who eat swine’s flesh, with broth of abominable things in their vessels; who say, “Keep to yourself, do not come near me, for I am too holy for you.” These are a smoke in my nostrils, a fire that burns all day long. See, it is written before me: I will not keep silent, but I will repay; I will indeed repay into their laps their iniquities and their ancestors’ iniquities together, says the LORD; because they offered incense on the mountains and reviled me on the hills, I will measure into their laps full payment for their actions.

Thus says the LORD: As the wine is found in the cluster, and they say, “Do not destroy it, for there is a blessing in it,” so I will do for my servants’ sake, and not destroy them all. I will bring forth descendants from Jacob, and from Judah inheritors of my mountains; my chosen shall inherit it, and my servants shall settle there.

L: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

P: Thanks be to God.

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Galatians, chapter 3.

Now before faith came, we were imprisoned and guarded under the law until faith would be revealed. Therefore the law was our disciplinarian until Christ came, so that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer subject to a disciplinarian, for in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus. And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham’s offspring, heirs according to the promise.

L: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

P: Thanks be to God.

1. O Sav - ior, let me walk with thee in low - ly paths of ser - vice free;
 2. Teach me thy pa - tience, still with thee in clos - er, dear - er com - pa - ny,
 3. In hope that sends a shin - ing ray far down the fu - ture's broa - dening way, tell me thy se - cret; help me bear the strain of toil, the fret of care.

 in work that keeps faith sweet and strong, in trust that tri - umphs o - ver wrong.
 in peace that on - ly thou canst give, with thee, O Sav - ior, let me live.

THE GOSPEL

Luke 8:26–39 (N.T. p. 68)

Rev. Ahrens

A reading from the Gospel of Luke, chapter 8.

Then they arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, “What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me”— for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.) Jesus then asked him, “What is your name?” He said, “Legion”; for many demons had entered him. They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss. Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned. When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country. Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed. Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying, “Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you.” So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

L: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

P: Thanks be to God.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil,

Global Mission Partner Jeff Mensendiek, Japan

Jeffrey Mensendiek serves with Kwansai Gakuin University in Tokyo, Japan. Mr. Mensendiek has worked with the United Church of Christ in Japan for over 22 years. The church in Japan is a minority church, as only one percent of the population is Christian. In this environment, the church is one of many sub-cultures that is discriminated against because it goes against the norms. He is now working as chaplain at Kwansai Gakuin University. Some of the challenges facing the church in Japan are:

- Passing on the faith to the next generation
- Discrimination as a minority people
- Internal division within the church over theological differences
- The ongoing nuclear disaster (protecting life in the face of powers who deny the dangerous truth)
- Being a prophetic voice against increasing nationalism and militarism
