

WORSHIP AT ELEVEN
FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

July 31, 2022

The Eighth Sunday after Pentecost/Proper 13

WELCOME TO FIRST CHURCH!

If you are visiting today and looking for a church home, welcome! For more than 169 years our Covenant has been: We covenant with the Lord Jesus Christ and one another, and bind ourselves in the presence of God to live together in all God's ways as revealed to us by the Holy Spirit and holy scripture. The church acknowledges that all members have the right of individual interpretation of the principles of the Christian faith and respects them in their honest convictions. In accordance with the teaching of our Lord, the church recognizes two sacraments: Baptism and Holy Communion.

*Enter to Worship – Depart to Serve. Please use this time for quiet preparation for worship.
'We have waited in silence on your loving-kindness, O God, in the midst of your temple.'

THE HEBREW SCRIPTURE

Ecclesiastes 1:2, 12–14; 2:18–32

Mr. Kulwicki

A reading from the book of Ecclesiastes, chapter 1.

Vanity of vanities, says the Teacher, vanity of vanities! All is vanity. I, the Teacher, when king over Israel in Jerusalem, applied my mind to seek and to search out by wisdom all that is done under heaven; it is an unhappy business that God has given to human beings to be busy with. I saw all the deeds that are done under the sun; and see, all is vanity and a chasing after wind. I hated all my toil in which I had toiled under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to those who come after me —and who knows whether they will be wise or foolish? Yet they will be master of all for which I toiled and used my wisdom under the sun. This also is vanity. So I turned and gave my heart up to despair concerning all the toil of my labors under the sun, because sometimes one who has toiled with wisdom and knowledge and skill must leave all to be enjoyed by another who did not toil for it. This also is vanity and a great evil. What do mortals get from all the toil and strain with which they toil under the sun? For all their days are full of pain, and their work is a vexation; even at night their minds do not rest. This also is vanity.

L: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

P: Thanks be to God.

THE EPISTLE

Colossians 3:1–11

Mr. Kulwicki

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Colossians, chapter 3.

So if you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on the things that are above, not on the things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory. Put to death, therefore, whatever in you is earthly: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry). On account of these the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient. These are the ways you also once followed, when you were living that life. But now you must get rid of all such things: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive language from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator. In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, enslaved and free, but Christ is all and in all!

L: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

P: Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

Luke 12:13-21

Rev. Ahrens

A reading from the Gospel according to Luke, chapter 12.

Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me." But he said to him, "Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?" And he said to them, "Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions." Then he told them a parable: "The land of a rich man produced abundantly. And he thought to himself, 'What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?' Then he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, 'Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.' But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?' So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich toward God."

L: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

P: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

"In the Beginning..."

Rev. Ahrens

Part one of the six-part sermon series, "God's Good Earth."

A period of silence follows.

A Prayer for Air:

We thank you, God, for the gift of air –
 for cool breezes and brisk winds that refresh us,
 for blue skies and crystal-clear nights,
 for the smells of every season—summer and winter, spring and fall.
 Most of all, we thank you for the air that gives us life.

You offer your Spirit to us with every breath we take.

May we protect this gift that gives us life.

A Prayer for Water:

Thanks be for water
 that sustains the life of animals, fish, and plants,
 that cleans our bodies and blesses our souls.
 For the water of tears that wash away our grief, for the water of slides, pools, and oceans where we can plan and have fun. Thanks be for water.

Your water gives us new life.

May we treasure this gift and share it with others.

A Prayer for fire:

Thank you for fire and the many ways we use it,
 to cook our food,
 to sterilize and purify,
 to smelt ore and form metal,
 to warm our homes, and
 to light our dark nights.

You light our way and enlighten our minds.

May we be open to the fire of your Spirit.

A Prayer for Earth:

Thank you for the ground beneath our feet,
 your good earth that gives life to all.

In a memory we don't understand, green plants spring forth from your darkness. Canyons and mountains, plains and deserts show us your infinite imagination. We thank you for this firm foundation on which to build our homes and our lives.

May we always love this land as you love it.

May we care for this good earth that gives us such good life. (Talitha Arnold)

OUR LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

First Serves Gladden "Back to School" Backpack Project

First Serves, the collaborative ministry of Justice and Mercy and Christian Education commissions, continues its work to help those in our community on Sunday, July 31, at 10 a.m. Education Wing. We are asking the congregation to donate funds to this important need for the children in West Franklinton. Each backpack kit will be age and grade-appropriate. Our goal is 200 kits. The cost for each backpack kit is $15.

Please make a monetary donation to help purchase the supplies now through July 31. The Church will purchase the backpacks and supply the materials. We need your help with the last touches to prepare the backpacks and distribute them to Gladden.

Please contact Rev. Emily Corzine (ecorzine@first-church.org) or Rev. Joanna Samuelson (jsamuelson@first-church.org) for more information.

Reception for Rev. Emily Krause Corzine

Please join us on Sunday, August 14, following the 11 a.m. service, to celebrate the Ministry of Rev. Emily Krause Corzine. Rev. Emily has been a warm and generous pastor who has served us for seven and a half years as Associate Minister with her intelligence, deep faith, gentle spirit, sense of humor, creativity, and courage. Whits on Wheels, a local ice cream truck, will serve sweet treats as we gather near the playground to celebrate Rev. Emily, husband Jeff, daughter Cameron, and mother Cindy Krause.

Please register for this fun outdoor reception by visiting <https://onrealm.org/TheFirstCongreg/PublicRegistrations/Event?linkString=NDE2NTI4NzQtZmM0ZS00Y2IyLTk0MDMtYWVhNjAwZTg1MwYw>

In the First Church tradition of a “purse” for departing staff, we will receive cash donations as a gift for Rev. Emily. Donations to this purse will be accepted on or before Monday, August 8, 2022. Please make your check payable to First Congregational Church with the memo indicating your gift to Rev. Emily Corzine. Checks may be placed in the Sunday offering plates or mailed to Annette McCormick, Business Administrator, First Congregational Church, 444 E. Broad Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215-3885.

We are also mindful of the empty shelves at Gladden Food Pantry. We ask all of you to drop off non-perishable food-stuffs and/or personal hygiene items that can be delivered immediately to our neighbors in need. This is a grand way to honor Rev. Emily’s ministry among us and our community.

Thank you for your generosity as we thank one who has been so generous with her time and talent to First Church as we work for issues of justice and mercy in our community and around the world.

“God’s Good Earth” Sermon Series

Beginning on July 31, First Church begins a six-week sermon series entitled “God’s Good Earth.” The series is based on Anne and Jeffrey Rowthorn’s book “God’s Good Earth: Praise and Prayers for Creation,” which contains remarkable prayers, litanies, hymns with old tunes and new words, and more.

The Rev. Dr. Tim Ahrens will “bookend” the series; he will open the series on July 31 and will preach again on the sixth Sunday, September 4. Additional preachers will bring their many gifts to the pulpit of First Church, and we will be blessed by their reflections.

“God’s Good Earth” Sermon Series

July 31 - Rev. Dr. Tim Ahrens: “In the Beginning”

August 7 - Rev. Heather Giffen: “Water is Life”

August 14 - Rev. Emily Corzine

August 21 - Dr. Amy Acton

August 28 - Rev. Joanna Samuelson: “Grounded in the Promise”

September 4 - Rev. Dr. Tim Ahrens: “The Eighth Day of Creation”

We hope this series will reflect a deep yearning and support for God’s Good Earth.

First Church Governance Task Force Explores Ideas from Vision 2027 Plan

The Vision 2027 long-range plan adopted at the annual congregational meeting last January called for the immediate establishment of a task force to review the church constitution and to suggest ways “to streamline, clarify, and modernize church governance, and church staff support.”

Church Council responded in February by creating the First Church Governance Task Force, which has been meeting monthly since March. Serving on the task force are Duan Cannon, Jackie Dean, Alec Deitz, Melody Leidheiser, Kent Shimeall, and Tom Worley. Steve Sterrett is the task force chair. Chris Farquhar, moderator, and Allison Lowery Palmer, moderator-elect, are ex officio members of the task force. The Rev. Emily Corzine is the staff liaison on the task force.

The task force is reviewing the church constitution to clarify the language where necessary and to consider amendments that strengthen the church’s administrative structure and operations. The task force also is studying the many recommendations in the Vision 2027 plan that affect commissions, committees, and congregational care.

Over the course of the spring and early summer, task force members have interviewed lay leaders and staff to obtain their ideas on improving church governance and operations. In addition, task force members are in the process of interviewing the leaders of four United Church of Christ congregations around the country for their insights on church governance. The Heartland Conference minister suggested these congregations because their size and missions are comparable to First Church.

Church Council created the task force prior to the resignations of Kevin Jones and Rev. Corzine. Their departure is a personnel matter being considered by the church’s Personnel Committee and Church Council, rather than the task force, which is focused on structural issues.

The task force hopes to develop a draft report to share with lay leaders, staff, and church members this fall for further deliberation and comment. The goal is to produce a final report with recommendations that could be considered at the annual congregational meeting next January.

If anyone has comments, suggestions or questions about the task force, please share them with Steve Sterrett, task force chair, at sterrett.1@osu.edu.

Mask Update

A mask advisory was issued after Franklin County was moved to the high level of the CDC’s data tracker for COVID-19 transmission. To protect yourself and others we encourage those attending in-person worship and events to follow the following guidance:

- . Wear a mask indoors and in crowded areas.
- . Stay up-to-date on all COVID-19 vaccines, including boosters.
- . Get tested if you have symptoms and before you gather.
- . Talk to your healthcare provider about additional precautions if you are at a high risk for severe illness.

The Covid Taskforce is following the guidance of the Columbus Public Health Department’s latest Mask Advisory. We strongly encourage you to mask in indoor spaces. Medical grade masks will continue to be available at each entrance for all services. Thank you!

You are welcomed, affirmed, and loved here; our faith informs us that you are a child of a loving God. Your characteristics and gifts will enrich our congregation. In this community, you will be celebrated, embraced, and honored, no matter how you identify or how your identity may evolve. Wherever you are on your faith journey, we invite you to join us in our diverse yet united experience.

First Church is a Faith Community

- † Called together by God, the Creator and Sustainer of life, to worship, pray and serve;
- † Led by Jesus Christ, our Teacher and Savior, to learn the faith and welcome all God's children;
- † Empowered by the Holy Spirit to witness to God's love and justice between ourselves, and throughout the world.

Open and Affirming Statement

We, the members of First Congregational Church, United Church of Christ, Columbus, Ohio, welcome and affirm all. We believe we are all created in God's image and called to love our neighbors as Jesus loves us. We believe we are many members, but one body in Christ, called to unite all people in God's love. We are a community seeking God's presence and love in our lives. We seek to unite persons of all ages, races, nationalities, ethnicities, sexual orientations, sexes, gender identities and expressions, family structures, mental, intellectual and physical conditions, economic circumstances, political, theological and faith backgrounds. Together in our diversity, and being empowered and directed by the Holy Spirit, we will "do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with our God." (Micah 6:8)
