

WORSHIP AT ELEVEN
FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

November 13, 2022

The Twenty-third Sunday after Pentecost/Proper 28

WELCOME TO FIRST CHURCH!

If you are visiting today and looking for a church home, welcome! For more than 170 years our Covenant has been: We covenant with the Lord Jesus Christ and one another, and bind ourselves in the presence of God to live together in all God's ways as revealed to us by the Holy Spirit and holy scripture. The church acknowledges that all members have the right of individual interpretation of the principles of the Christian faith and respects them in their honest convictions. In accordance with the teaching of our Lord, the church recognizes two sacraments: Baptism and Holy Communion.

*Enter to Worship – Depart to Serve. Please use this time for quiet preparation for worship.
'We have waited in silence on your loving-kindness, O God, in the midst of your temple.'

THE HEBREW SCRIPTURE

Isaiah 65:17–25

Ms. Cooks

A reading from the Book of the prophet Isaiah, chapter 65.

For I am about to create new heavens and a new earth; the former things shall not be remembered or come to mind. But be glad and rejoice forever in what I am creating, for I am about to create Jerusalem as a joy and its people as a delight. I will rejoice in Jerusalem and delight in my people; no more shall the sound of weeping be heard in it or the cry of distress. No more shall there be in it an infant who lives but a few days or an old person who does not live out a lifetime, for one who dies at a hundred years will be considered a youth, and one who falls short of a hundred will be considered accursed. They shall build houses and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit. They shall not build and another inhabit; they shall not plant and another eat, for like the days of a tree shall the days of my people be, and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands. They shall not labor in vain or bear children for calamity, for they shall be offspring blessed by the Lord—and their descendants as well. Before they call I will answer, while they are yet speaking I will hear. The wolf and the lamb shall feed together; the lion shall eat straw like the ox, but the serpent—its food shall be dust! They shall not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain, says the Lord.

L: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

P: Thanks be to God.

O taste and see how gracious the Lord is: blest is the man that trusteth in him.

THE EPISTLE

2 THESSALONIANS 3: 6–13

Ms. Cooks

A reading from the second Letter of Paul to the Thessalonians, chapter 3.

Now we command you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from every brother or sister living irresponsibly and not according to the tradition that they received from us. For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us; we were not irresponsible when we were with you, and we did not eat anyone's bread without paying for it, but with toil and labor we worked night and day so that we might not burden any of you. This was not because we do not have that right but in order to give you an example to imitate. For even when we were with you, we gave you this command: anyone unwilling to work should not eat. For we hear that some of you are living irresponsibly, mere busybodies, not doing any work. Now such persons we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work quietly and to earn their own living. Brothers and sisters, do not be weary in doing what is right.

L: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

P: Thanks be to God.

filled, For all the earth shall know the Lord.

A reading from the Gospel according to Luke, chapter 21.

When some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, Jesus said, “As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down.” They asked him, “Teacher, when will this be, and what will be the sign that this is about to take place?” And he said, “Beware that you are not led astray; for many will come in my name and say, ‘I am he!’ and, ‘The time is near!’ Do not go after them. “When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for these things must take place first, but the end will not follow immediately.” Then he said to them, “Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and plagues; and there will be dreadful portents and great signs from heaven. “But before all this occurs, they will arrest you and persecute you; they will hand you over to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of my name. This will give you an opportunity to testify. So make up your minds not to prepare your defense in advance; for I will give you words and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to withstand or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, by relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name. But not a hair of your head will perish. By your endurance you will gain your souls.

L: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

P: Thanks be to God.

Connection Circles

Connection is the energy that exists between people when they feel seen, heard, and valued; when they can give and receive without judgment; and when they derive sustenance and strength from the relationship.

Brené Brown (best-selling author and professor)

As we navigate our way through these transitional times together at First Church, it is essential to stay connected to offer and receive care and support from one another. We are planning a series of “Connection Circles” in order to create sacred space for facilitated small group conversations as it pertains to your experience of the changes and conflict at church. Each gathering is intended for six participants along with two co-facilitators. They will be led by Rev. Joanna Samuelson, Jackie Dean, our Commissioned Minister of Spiritual Formation and Direction, or Jan Hamilton, First Church member and retired Congregational Care nurse.

We have planned the following “Connection Circles” for the next couple of weeks and will continue to schedule them throughout the fall as needed.

- Friday, November 11, 10-11:30 a.m. in the Parish Family Room
- Saturday, November 12, at 10-11:30 a.m. in the Parish Family Room
- Wednesday, November 16, at 7-8:30 p.m. in the Parish Family Room
- Friday, November 18, at 1-2:30 p.m. in the Parish Family Room

For additional information and/or to register for one of the above “Connection Circles,” please contact Rev. Joanna directly at jsamuelson@first-church.org or by cell: 214-995-3525. Thank you.

Concerts at First Church
Sunday, November 13, 4 p.m.
Dr. Robert Poovey, Organist

Come and join us on Sunday, November 13 at 4 p.m. and hear Dr. Robert Poovey perform on the Beckerath organ (Gallery) and Kimball organ (Chancel) in a program featuring the music of Nikolaus Bruhns (1665-1697), Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750), Anton Heiller (1923-1979), Leo Sowerby (1895-1968) and Cèsar Franck (1822-1890). There will be a reception following the concert and all are invited.

In addition to being a concert organist, Dr. Poovey is a consummate church organist, building programs involving all ages, sharing his skills by teaching, and providing ministry through outreach in the community. Robert Poovey is in his sixteenth season as Director of Music at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Rochester, New York. A native of Greensboro, North Carolina, he holds the Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Organ Performance and Literature from the Eastman School of Music, and Bachelor's and Master's degrees in organ from the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music and Southern Methodist University, respectively.

From 1995 to 2006, he served as Director of Music Ministries at historic St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Atlanta, where he developed a varied, innovative and active music program involving some seven groups, with an emphasis on intergenerational participation. From 2006 to 2007, he was Project Director for Casavant Frères, one of the leading pipe organ companies in North America.

Dr. Poovey has served on the Liturgical Commissions in the Episcopal Dioceses of North Carolina, Olympia (Western Washington State) and Atlanta, and also has been on the faculty for the Leadership Program for Musicians Serving Small Congregations, a two-year course of study leading to participants' receiving The Presiding Bishop's Diploma in Church Music. Since 2020, he has been a member of the Sacred Music faculty of the Eastman School of Music. In the summer of 2022 Dr. Poovey was Music Director for the Royal School of Church Music Carolina Course for Girls and Adults, held at Duke University.

With appearances in both the United States and Europe to his credit, Poovey is active as a performer as well as a church musician. Last month in Rochester he performed Samuel Barber's Toccata Festiva in the composer's arrangement for piano and organ (with pianists Gordon Porth and Howard Spindler) as a part of "If Music Be the Food," a concert series that benefits Rochester's FOODLINK. In May of 2021 he returned to St. Luke's Atlanta for a recital on the Alston Memorial Organ. Robert Poovey maintains membership in the Association of Anglican Musicians and the American Guild of Organists.

Unsheltered Group Update

In March of this year, Moderator Chris Farquhar established a working group of staff and church members to review the needs of unsheltered individuals who have stayed on church property overnight, and to learn how our church could better support their transition to shelter programs or permanent housing. In addition, the group was to consider what opportunities to explore and restrictions to impose that would enhance the safety of unsheltered individuals, staff, church members, tenants, and volunteers while protecting church property.

The Unsheltered Group has met weekly for most of the time since March. It has conducted research on the topic with the staff of downtown churches, the Columbus Coalition for the Homeless, the Discovery Special Improvement District, organizations in other cities, and the Insurance Board for the United Church of Christ. Representatives of the Unsheltered Group have consulted with various church committees including Justice and Mercy, House and Grounds, Deacons, Trustees, and Security as well as church staff.

Some interim steps were initiated to deal with immediate issues of need or concern. One initiative was the placement of a portable outdoor restroom located along the alley next to the church. This project was approved by council and funded by designated gifts. Also, two unsheltered individuals have found permanent housing through the partnership involving church volunteers and the staff of the Discovery Special Improvement District. By council action, two other unsheltered individuals have been ordered to leave church property and to not return because of their inappropriate conduct.

The group's research, engagement, and trial projects have led to a report of recommendations for consideration of church council for its meeting of November 15. The report is composed of proposed policies that begin the effort to define our relationship with unsheltered people, their access to church property, and our interaction with the service providers who help them. The goal is to help unsheltered visitors find a path to self-sustainability through established social service agencies.

To learn more about the efforts of this group and its report, you are invited to attend the session today, Sunday, November 13 at 12:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall. Please contact Jim or Gail Lowe with questions at either lowemail1124@gmail.com or loweg1124@gmail.com.

Thanksgiving Food Drive

We are challenging each First Church member to bring canned and/or boxed food items to church for two Sundays in a row: November 13 and November 20.

On November 13, you'll find a table for your donations in the first-floor hallway of the Education Wing. And then, on Sunday, November 20, we invite you to bring your food donations into worship with you (at both services) where we will dedicate your gifts of food as well as the feeding ministry that we share with Gladden Community House.

The food that we will donate together meets a deep need for those currently being served by the Gladden Community House Food Pantry. Our goal is to donate 250 items to Gladden on Monday, November 21st in time for Thanksgiving.

If you need additional information, please contact Kris Brant or Rev. Joanna. Thank you for your generous spirits and giving hearts!

Giving Tree

Since last year’s Giving Tree, many have asked if they could help the children at Childcare Wonderland again for Christmas. We have set up a Giving Tree with 34 children’s wish ornament depicting a child’s first name, age, gender, and wished-for gift (typically $25-$50). The Giving Tree is in the Education Wing Breezeway. The donor attaches the ornament as the gift tag and returns it to the church office by December 11. The gifts will be delivered by our staff to Childcare Wonderland Center.

We are a community seeking God's presence and love in our lives. We seek to unite persons of all ages, races, nationalities, ethnicities, sexual orientations, sexes, gender identities and expressions, family structures, mental, intellectual and physical conditions, economic circumstances, political, theological and faith backgrounds. Together in our diversity, and being empowered and directed by the Holy Spirit, we will "do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with our God." (Micah 6:8)
