Noel, English melody, arr. Arthur Sullivan, 1874

“O God, who give us life and breath”

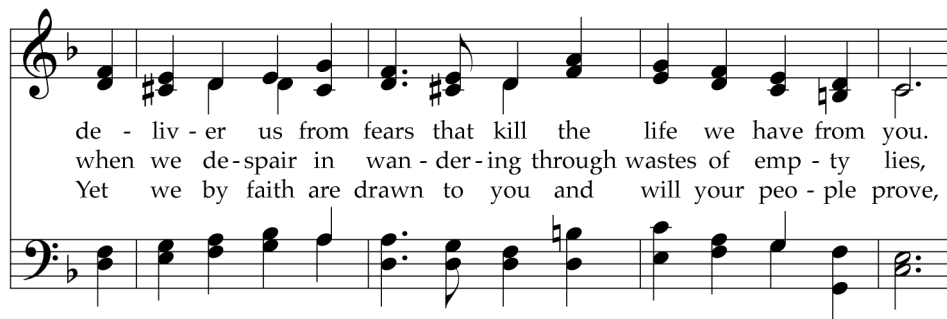

Carl P. Daw, Jr., 1990

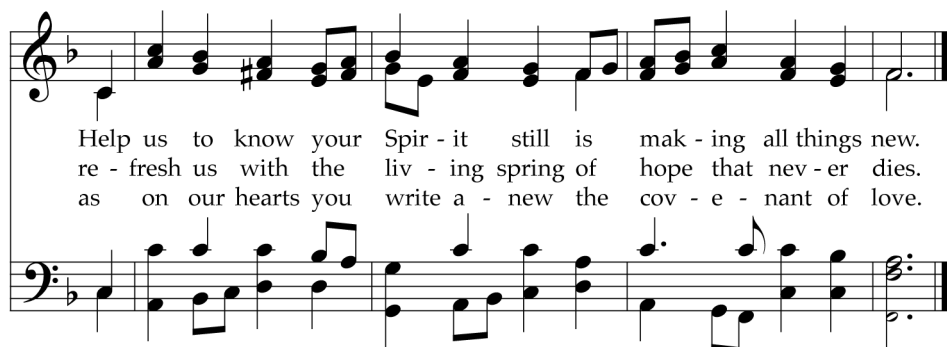

1 O God, who gives us life and breath, who shapes us in the womb,
2 O God, who calls your peo-ple out to ven-ture and to dare,
3 O God of cov-e - nant and law, re - vealed in cloud and flame,

who guards our lives from birth to death, then leads us from the tomb:
to plumb the bleak a - byss of doubt and find you e - ven there:
your might - y deeds e - voke our awe; we dare not speak your name.

de - liv - er us from fears that kill the life we have from you.
when we de-spair in wan - der - ing through wastes of emp - ty lies,
Yet we by faith are drawn to you and will your peo - ple prove,

Help us to know your Spir - it still is mak - ing all things new.
re - fresh us with the liv - ing spring of hope that nev - er dies.
as on our hearts you write a - new the cov - e - nant of love.

*INVOCATION

The Rev. Joanna Samuelson

Leader: God be with you.

People. And also with you.

Leader: Let us pray.

People: Gracious Father, whose blessed Son Jesus Christ came down from heaven to be the true bread which gives life to the world: Evermore give us this bread, that he may live in us, and we in him; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

The Rev. Dr. Timothy C. Ahrens

Leader: We are called to examine our faithfulness to God’s covenant with us. God, in whose presence we gather, promises us grace and pardon when we acknowledge our weakness and brokenness. Let us confess our sin to almighty God.

All: Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Silence may be observed for reflection and prayer.

The musical score is written in G major (one sharp) and 3/4 time. It consists of three systems of music, each with a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The lyrics are printed below the vocal line. The first system covers the first two lines of lyrics. The second system covers the next two lines. The third system covers the final two lines. The piano accompaniment consists of simple chords and single notes.

THE HEBREW SCRIPTURE

Numbers 21:4-9

Dr. Mathias

Leader: A reading from the book of Numbers, the twenty-first chapter.

From Mount Hor the Israelites set out by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; but the people became impatient on the way. The people spoke against God and against Moses, “Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we detest this miserable food.” Then the Lord sent poisonous serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many Israelites died. The people came to Moses and said, “We have sinned by speaking against the Lord and against you; pray to the Lord to take away the serpents from us.” So Moses prayed for the people. And the Lord said to Moses, “Make a poisonous serpent, and set it on a pole; and everyone who is bitten shall look at it and live.” So Moses made a serpent of bronze, and put it upon a pole; and whenever a serpent bit someone, that person would look at the serpent of bronze and live.

Leader: The Word of God for the People of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

*THE GOSPEL HYMN

You who are wea - ry, come home." Ear - nest - ly, ten - der - ly,

Je - sus is call - ing, call - ing, "O sin - ner, come home!"

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It features a treble and bass clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 6/8 time signature. The melody is simple and repetitive, with a clear refrain section. The lyrics are printed below the vocal line, and the piano accompaniment consists of chords and single notes in the bass line.

Leader: A reading from the Gospel according to John, the third chapter.

Jesus said, “Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

“For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

“Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Those who believe in him are not condemned; but those who do not believe are condemned already, because they have not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil. For all who do evil hate the light and do not come to the light, so that their deeds may not be exposed. But those who do what is true come to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God.”

Leader: The Word of God for the People of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

BAPTISMAL MEDITATION

“Jesus and the Agony of Prayer”

Rev. Ahrens

Fifth in the Lenten sermon series, “Jesus”

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Rev. Samuelson

Leader: Let us pray as Christ our Savior has taught us.

All: Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

“When I survey the wondrous cross”

When I survey the wondrous cross
on which the Prince of glory died,
my richest gain I count but loss,
and pour contempt on all my pride.

Forbid it Lord, that I should boast,
save in the death of Christ, my God!
All vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to His blood.

Lowell Mason, 1824, arr. Gilbert M. Martin, 1968

Isaac Watts, 1707

See, from His head, his hands, his feet,
sorrow and love flow mingled down!
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Were the whole realms of nature mine,
that were a present far too small;
love so amazing, so divine,
demands my soul, my life, my all Amen.

*DOXOLOGY

Old 100th

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Christ, all creatures here below;
Praise Holy Spirit evermore;
Praise Triune God, whom we adore.

*PRAYER OF DEDICATION

Rev. Samuelson

For gifts given and received, O God, we offer our praise.
May we share our abundance with all who have need,

Become a Stephen Minister

Be involved in a meaningful ministry that uses your spiritual gifts. Serving as a Stephen Minister gives people an opportunity to put their spiritual gifts into action—gifts such as faith, mercy, compassion, and encouragement. Ministry that draws on your gifts is personally fulfilling and touches people's lives in powerful ways. One of the blessings of being a Stephen Minister is being part of a community of people who care, all of whom lift one another up as they strive together to provide the best possible ministry for the members of our congregation. The strong relationships you'll form as a Stephen Minister are both rewarding and a great source of support. To find out more about becoming a Stephen Minister at First Church, contact Gary Glover at stephenministrycoordinator@first-church.org. Our next Stephen Minister Training Course begins on Wednesday, May 1.

Volunteers are needed for the Safety and Security Committee. Working on this committee will acquaint you with the day-to-day operations of our busy church building and staff, and you will get to know your fellow lay leaders on the House and Grounds and the Technology and Communication commissions, as well as the Deacons. If you have any questions or are especially interested in joining this committee, please contact Greg Halbe, Moderator, at greghalbe@gmail.com or 262-902-4848 (call or text).

Summer Camp Registration

Throughout the summer months, a variety of weeklong camps are planned at Temples Hills for children/youth who have completed the second grade and older. Camper scholarships are available for First Church children and youth because of the generosity of the late Alma Keeler, a longtime First Church member. For more information about camp, Camper Scholarships, and how to register, click the QR Code below.

Minister of Music Advisory Group

Our church's first Minister of Music Advisory Group has been formed and approved by Church Council. This group functions as a channel for communicating the congregation's compliments and concerns to the Minister of Music. It also serves as a supportive sounding board for professional matters on the Minister of Music's mind. Discussions between parishioners and advisory group members, as well as the content of meetings with the Minister of Music, are confidential. Group members, all of whom are laity or non-active clergy, do not participate in job performance evaluations. Members of the congregation who would like their reflections, insights, or concerns shared with the Minister of Music are invited to contact any of the members of the advisory group prior to its first meeting on March 20. Members of the advisory group are Cami Curren (camillacurren@gmail.com), Greg Duncan (interprep@earthlink.net), Dianne Frazer (dianne@diannefraser.com), Dameon Jones (ddjones24@yahoo.com), and Nancy Livingston (revnancy62@gmail.com).
