

WELCOME TO FIRST CHURCH!

If you are visiting today and looking for a church home, welcome! For 172 years, our Covenant has been: We covenant with the Lord Jesus Christ and one another, and bind ourselves in the presence of God to live together in all God’s ways as revealed to us by the Holy Spirit and holy scripture. The church acknowledges that all members have the right of individual interpretation of the principles of the Christian faith and respects them in their honest convictions. In accordance with the teaching of our Lord, the church recognizes two sacraments: Baptism and Holy Communion.

THE OLD TESTAMENT

Ezekiel 17: 22-24

Cami Curren

Leader: A reading from the book of Ezekiel, the seventeenth chapter.

Thus says the Lord God:

I myself will take a sprig

from the lofty top of a cedar;

I will set it out.

I will break off a tender one

from the topmost of its young twigs;

I myself will plant it

on a high and lofty mountain.

On the mountain height of Israel

I will plant it,

in order that it may produce boughs and bear fruit,
and become a noble cedar.

Under it every kind of bird will live;

in the shade of its branches will nest

winged creatures of every kind.

All the trees of the field shall know that I am the Lord.

I bring low the high tree,

I make high the low tree;

I dry up the green tree

and make the dry tree flourish.

I the Lord have spoken;

I will accomplish it.

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

THE PSALTER

Psalms 92:1-4, 12-15

Cami Curren

It is a good thing to give thanks to God,
and to sing praises to your Name, O Most High;

To tell of your loving-kindness early in the morning
and of your faithfulness in the night season;

On the psaltery, and on the lyre,
and to the melody of the harp,

For you have made me glad by your acts, O God,
and I shout for joy because of the works of your hands.

Those who are planted in the house of God
shall flourish in the heavenly courts.

They shall still bear fruit in old age;
they shall be green and succulent,

That they may show how upright God is,
my Rock, in whom there is no fault.

THE GOSPEL

Mark 4: 26-34

Rev. Samuelson

Leader: A reading from the Gospel according to Mark, the twentieth chapter.

Jesus said, "The kingdom of God is as if someone would scatter seed on the ground, and would sleep and rise night and day, and the seed would sprout and grow, he does not know how. The earth produces of itself, first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head. But when the grain is ripe, at once he goes in with his sickle, because the harvest has come."

He also said, "With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable will we use for it? It is like a mustard seed, which, when sown upon the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes the greatest of all shrubs, and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade."

With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it; he did not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything in private to his disciples.

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

"Waiting is Active"

Rev. Samuelson

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Dr. Halbe

Leader: Let us pray as Christ our Savior has taught us.

All: Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil,

for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Henry Alford, 1844

1. We walk by faith, and not by sight; no gra-cious words we hear
2. We may not touch His hands and side, nor fol-low where He trod;
3. Help then, O Lord, our un-be-lief; and may our faith a-bound
4. That, when our life of faith is done, in realms of clear-er light, from Him who spoke as none e-er spoke, but we be-lieve Him near.

but in His prom-ise we re-joice and cry, “My Lord and God!”
to call on You when You are near and seek where You are found.
we may be-hold You as You are with full and end-less sight.

Transition News

Whatever it might be at the time, a two-year-old wants it now. There's no waiting. "I want it now!" To prepare for his ministry, Jesus went into the wilderness to pray and meditate. His teaching was filled with metaphors that allowed listeners to interpret and apply his words to their lives and situations. The work of the church during a time of transition is more like the model of Jesus to wait, meditate, and interpret, than the demands of the two-year-old.

First Church has begun a once in a generation opportunity to shape the future of our ministry in Columbus. The Transition Team is asking leaders and church members to metaphorically wander through the wilderness to listen for and contemplate our call for ministry in the coming years. First Church was established on a foundation to care for the community and care for each other. Whatever this will look like, we must be intentional to call spiritual leaders who advocate for mercy and justice. To do this will take time.

Our metaphorical wandering is not without a plan. Small group discussions are being held to share how each of us hears God's call for our ministry. The Transition Team has submitted its request for an intentional interim minister. This person has specialized training to support our separation from one called pastor to the beginning of the next. Qualified candidates will be vetted and interviewed, and then the best person will be hired for an interim ministry that will span 1-2 years. As we navigate this process, we continue to be the hands and feet, ears and voice, for Christ at First Church.

Remember, The times, they are a changing... Let's all be part of the change.
