

WELCOME TO FIRST CHURCH!

If you are visiting today and looking for a church home, welcome! For nearly 172 years, our Covenant has been: We covenant with the Lord Jesus Christ and one another, and bind ourselves in the presence of God to live together in all God's ways as revealed to us by the Holy Spirit and holy scripture. The church acknowledges that all members have the right of individual interpretation of the principles of the Christian faith and respects them in their honest convictions. In accordance with the teaching of our Lord, the church recognizes two sacraments: Baptism and Holy Communion.

THE HEBREW SCRIPTURE

2 Kings 4:42-44

Rev. Clark

Leader: A reading from the Second Book of Kings, the fourth chapter.

A man came from Baal-shalishah, bringing food from the first fruits to the man of God: twenty loaves of barley and fresh ears of grain in his sack. Elisha said, "Give it to the people and let them eat." But his servant said, "How can I set this before a hundred people?" So he repeated, "Give it to the people and let them eat, for thus says the Lord, "They shall eat and have some left." He set it before them, they ate, and had some left, according to the word of the Lord.

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

THE PSALTER

Rev. Clark

Psalms 145:10-18

The St. Helena Psalter

All your works praise you, O God,
and your faithful servants bless you.

They make known the glory of your realm
and speak of your power,

That the peoples may know of your power
and the glorious splendor of your dominion.

Yours, O God, is an everlasting reign;
your dominion endures throughout all ages.

You are faithful in all your words
and merciful in all your deeds.

You uphold all those who fall;
you lift up those who are bowed down.

The eyes of all wait upon you, O God,
and you give them their food in due season.

You open wide your hand
and satisfy the needs of every living creature.

You are righteous in all your ways
and loving in all your works.

Leader: A reading from the Gospel according to John, the sixth chapter.

Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias. A large crowd kept following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing for the sick. Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with his disciples. Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near. When he looked up and saw a large crowd coming toward him, Jesus said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?" He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?" Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all. Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, "Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost." So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets. When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, "This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world."

When Jesus realized that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain by himself.

When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea, got into a boat, and started across the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. The sea became rough because a strong wind was blowing. When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat, and they were terrified. But he said to them, "It is I; do not be afraid." Then they wanted to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land toward which they were going.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Rev. Samuelson

Leader: Let us pray as Christ our Savior has taught us.

All: Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is common time (C). The lyrics are written below the vocal line. The first system covers the first line of lyrics, the second system covers the second line, and the third system covers the third line. POSTLUDE

Please be seated for the postlude and use this time for quiet reflection.

Thank you for attending worship this morning. We hope that you have found peace and grace here and invite you to return often. If you would like more information or have any questions about First Church, please ask anyone wearing a name tag. We would be delighted to assist you.

MUSIC NOTES

Note on “O living Bread from heaven”: The phrase “bread of life” as a metaphor for scripture has misled many people into thinking of this hymn as being connected with the Lord’s Supper, when its true subject is Bible study. Both the author and the composer were active in the work of the Chautauqua Assembly.

Transition News

Interim ministry is not regular ministry!

Though “interim” means temporary, it does not mean partial, incomplete, or part-time. The sense of loss when Rev. Tim leaves in October is like any loss. Without time to grieve the loss, our feelings can get stuck. Interim ministry can help provide an environment in which change can occur positively, creatively, and helpfully. After celebrating 25 years of ministry with Rev. Tim Ahrens, we can work with our interim ministers to focus on our future ministry in Columbus. Being future-focused will help the church discern God’s call and prepare for the arrival of new pastoral leadership.

The interim time is a time for discernment. The Transition Team of First Church asks for your participation in listening and discerning.
