Welcome to First Church!

You are welcomed, affirmed, and loved here; our faith informs us that you are a child of a loving God. Your characteristics and gifts will enrich our congregation. In this community, you will be celebrated, embraced, and honored, no matter how you identify or how your identity may evolve.

Wherever you are on your faith journey, we invite you to join us in our diverse yet united experience.

Please use this time for quiet preparation for worship.

VOLUNTARY

Prelude, Fugue, and Chaccone, BuxWV 137

Dietrich Buxtehude (1637-1707)

Enter to Worship Rev. Becky David

Leader: The people of God were made for worship:

To sing and to praise, to laugh and to dance.

People: The people of God were made for God's presence:

For pleasure and praise, for joy and for song.

Please stand as you are able. (* indicates congregation standing)

*Leader: Come, holy people, God's chosen disciples:

Gather for worship, come from all places!

People: We have come to God's temple, gathered together,

We have come to praise God and enjoy him forever.

"When morning gilds the skies"

German hymn, c. 1800, trans. Edward Caswall, 1953, 1858, alt.

*Invocation

Rev. jessica young chang

Leader: God be with you. People: And also with you.

Leader: Let us pray:

Hospitable God, you invite us to a banquet where the last may be first, and the humble and the mighty trade places.

Let us share your abundance with no fear of scarcity;

let us greet strangers as angels you have sent!

People: Send your Spirit now so that we may find a place at your table and welcome others with radical hospitality.

In the name of Jesus, Guest at all our tables, we pray. Amen.

*Welcome and Passing of the Peace

Rev. David

Leader: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Let us greet one another with a sign of Christ's peace.

* When you return to your seat, please find the blue Welcome notebook at the end of the pew, sign it and pass it on to your neighbor so we many greet one another by name.

*Installation of Interim Associate Minister Rev. Jessica young chang Rev. David and

Rev. Sarah Reed, Moderator

Rev. Reed: First Congregational United Church of Christ,

under the guidance of the Holy Spirit,

has hired and covenants with Rev. jessica young chang to serve as Interim Associate Minister, to minister in this congregation as pastor and teacher, and that we now receive them as appointed by God for this ministry.

Rev. David: jessica, seeing that you are called to ordained ministry by the grace of God and that First Congregational UCC of Columbus has hired you as pastor and teacher, are you willing to enter this covenant with its members who are one in Christ with us?

Rev. young I am willing, and I promise to serve this church faithfully, chang: preaching and teaching the word of God, administering the sacraments, and fulfilling the pastoral office, according to the faith and order of the United Church of Christ.

Rev. David: Members of First Congregational United Church of Christ, will you rise in body or in spirit and affirm your covenant with your interim pastor and teacher?

People: We, the members of First Congregational UCC receive jessica young chang as our pastor and teacher, promising to labor with them in the ministry of the gospel and to give them due honor and support.

We gather with them and with the United Church of Christ as a sign of our mutual ministry in Christ's name.

(Senior Pastor invites laying on/extension of hands, from Transition Committee, Church Council, and anyone else who would like to participate.)

Rev. David: Let us pray.

God whose name is Love, you have called us to make promises before you; now enable us to keep our vows, that we may remain steadfast in faith and fruitful in every good work.

Bless, we pray, your servant, jess, to whom the care of your people in this church is now committed.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on her,

on the people of First Congregational UCC, and all of your churches everywhere, that our ministry may be served with all faithfulness, compassion, and courage.

Grant us a spirit of power, of love, and of a sound mind.

Fill our ministry with the cooling water of your love, and the consuming fire of your justice.

Keep us pure in heart, fervent in spirit, and valiant against harm.

We pray these things in the name of the Anointed One, Jesus the Christ, Amen.

Rev. Reed: In the name of Jesus Christ and on behalf of the

First Congregational United Church of Christ, Columbus,

I declare you duly installed as Interim Associate Pastor of First Congregational UCC.

All: Thanks be to God.

THE FIRST SCRIPTURE READING

Jeremiah 2:4-13

Todd Cunningham

Leader: A reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah, the second chapter.

Hear the word of the Lord, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel.

Thus says the Lord:

What wrong did your ancestors find in me that they went far from me, and went after worthless things, and became worthless themselves?

They did not say, "Where is the Lord who brought us up from the land of Egypt, who led us in the wilderness,

in a land of deserts and pits,

in a land of drought and deep darkness,

in a land that no one passes through,

where no one lives?"

I brought you into a plentiful land to eat its fruits and its good things.

But when you entered you defiled my land, and made my heritage an abomination.

The priests did not say, "Where is the Lord?"

Those who handle the law did not know me;

the rulers transgressed against me;

the prophets prophesied by Baal,

and went after things that do not profit.

Therefore once more I accuse you, says the Lord, and I accuse your children's children.

Cross to the coasts of Cyprus and look, send to Kedar and examine with care; see if there has ever been such a thing.

Has a nation changed its gods, even though they are no gods?

But my people have changed their glory for something that does not profit.

Be appalled, O heavens, at this, be shocked, be utterly desolate, says the Lord, for my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the fountain of living water, and dug out cisterns for themselves, cracked cisterns that can hold no water.

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

Leader: A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Hebrews, the thirteenth chapter.

Let mutual love continue. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it. Remember those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them; those who are being tortured, as though you yourselves were being tortured. Let marriage be held in honor by all, and let the marriage bed be kept undefiled; for God will judge fornicators and adulterers. Keep your lives free from the love of money, and be content with what you have; for he has said, "I will never leave you or forsake you." So we can say with confidence,

"The Lord is my helper;

I will not be afraid.

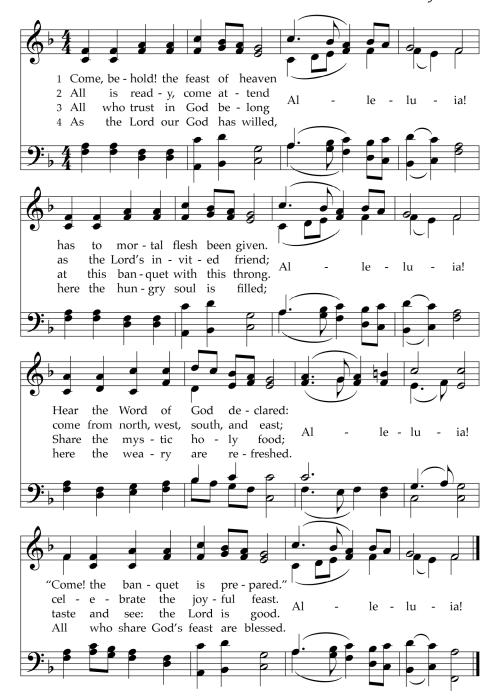

What can anyone do to me?"

Remember your leaders, those who spoke the word of God to you; consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.

Through him, then, let us continually offer a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name. Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

Leader: A reading from the Gospel according to Luke, the fourteenth chapter.

On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely.

When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honor, he told them a parable. "When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honor, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host; and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, 'Give this person your place,' and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place. But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, 'Friend, move up higher'; then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted."

He said also to the one who had invited him, "When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

Prayers of Intercession

THE LORD'S PRAYER

All: Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Mission Invitation Darren Raymond

Cash and designated gifts go to Mid-Ohio Workers Association (MWA), a free and voluntary, unincorporated membership association, uniting service workers, temporary workers and others who are low income since 2001. MWA's 11-point membership benefit program provides members with emergency food, clothing, legal advice, translation and language services, preventive medical care, and more. MWA activist campaigns have included working to stop electric power shut-offs, opposing utility rate hikes, and organizing for living wage protection. Entirely organized and run by volunteers, MWA depends on the financial support of members and allies. Thank you for your generosity.

*Doxology Old 100th

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise Christ, all creatures here below; Praise Holy Spirit evermore; Praise Triune God, whom we adore.

Prayer of Dedication

Rev. young chang

Leader: We give in grateful thanksgiving for all that God has given us.

In the upside down world of the gospel, we measure our wealth not by what we have,

but what we can give away.

People: Let us give away generously, in this offering,

To bless your church, your people, your creation.

COMMUNITY NOTICES - DEPART TO SERVE

Join the Transition Team in welcoming our new Interim Associate Minister, Rev. jessica young chang. The reception will be in Parish Hall following today's 11 a.m. service.

Light the Way Youth Bible Study Sunday, August 31, at 12:30 p.m.

"Light the Way" Youth Bible Study ends it's summer series. We thank Maggie Myers, high school senior and lifelong First Church member, for her leadership of this study. There will be time for pizza and ping pong today!

Save the Date First Church Engagement Fair Sunday, September 7

FCC Engagement Fair = Helping our members find engagement, service, and friendship opportunities that speak to their hearts here at First Church!

Come learn about all our mission projects, activities, and ways to become engaged and serve here at First Church at our annual Engagement Fair! Join us in Parish Hall right after each worship service for an opportunity to connect with other members as you learn about our activities. Come chat with fellow members, put names to faces, and explore wonderful opportunities for service, engagement, and friendship!

Commission and committee members are asked to come Saturday, September 6 between 10:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. or Sunday morning between 8 and 8:40 a.m. to set up your displays and/or handouts. Please contact coordinator, Kathy Reed at kbreed2010@gmail.com for more information about this informative program.

Miracles and Wonders Book Study Friday, September 5, at 10 a.m.

A group of dedicated First Church members have been meeting weekly on the 8th floor of the Goodale Landing building (340 West Goodale Street) at Ohio Living Westminster Thurber following their Lenten study.

They are studying new scientific Biblical publications that have been piquing their curiosity, and it has them given much to think about. They invite other members of First Church to join their study. On September 5 at 10 a.m., they will start a new discussion on Elaine Pagels' Miracles and Wonders. There is plenty of parking, so please join them! Antoinette Koolemans-Beynen (240-557-9770).

First Church Book Club James by Percival Everett Wednesday, September 10 7 p.m. on Zoom

Come enjoy lively conversation and get to know other church members at the First Church Book Club on Zoom.

James is a brilliant, action-packed reimagining of Mark Twain's Adventures of Huckleberry Finn. Told from the enslaved Jim's point of view, it's both harrowing and ferociously funny. As we see Jim's agency, intelligence and compassion, he emerges as a man of great dignity, altruism, and intelligence. Percival Everett was awarded both the 2025 Pulitzer Prize for Fiction and the 2024 National Book Award for Fiction for James.

Want to receive book club emails? Please email Kathy Reed at kbreed2010@gmail.com.

Adult Education Bible Study and Young Peoples Sunday School Sunday, September 14, at 10 a.m

Our Adult Bible Study season begins in Classroom C. The Revs. Margo Connor and Larry Miller will lead this season on the theme of The Parables of Jesus in an Autocratic World.

Also, Sunday School returns for young children and middle school and high school students! Please contact Leslie Fulford at lfurford@first-church.org to register for Sunday School.

Council Minutes

July's Church Council Minutes are available on Realm. The meeting minutes can be found under Group Resources for "The First Congregational Church" Files. If you need an invite to Realm, please contact the church office at 614-228-1741.

"Mama Bears" Thank You!

The "Mama Bears" film screening and panel discussion was a huge success! Thank you to all who attended and to our panelists and volunteers. We would also like to extend a special thank you to Gail and Jim Lowe whose hard work and dedication made this event possible.

Share Your Garden's Bounty

Fresh fruits and veggies are always in high demand at the Broad Street Presbyterian Church Food Pantry at 760 E. Broad St. You can drop off any extra veggies, herbs, and fruit from your garden at the Pantry weekday mornings or at the church office weekday afternoons. There's nothing better than sharing your homegrown produce!

An Eco Tip from Sacred Earth about Paper Towels

Did you know that paper towels are NOT recyclable? The reason is the fibers in paper towels are too short to be recycled. Each time a paper towel is recycled the fibers get shorter. As a result they should not be put in your residential recycling bin.

If the towels do not contain chemicals, they can be composted through a food scrap drop off program or in your backyard compost bin. If you don't have access to composting, you can put them in the trash.

Instead of paper towels use Swedish dish towels or cloth towels. Together we can make a difference!

First Church is a Faith Community

† Called together by God, the Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer of life, to worship, pray and serve;

† Led by Jesus Christ, our Teacher and Savior, to learn the faith and welcome all God's children;

† Empowered by the Holy Spirit to witness God's love and justice between ourselves, and throughout the world.

We covenant with the Lord Jesus Christ and one another, and bind ourselves in the presence of God to live together in all God's ways as revealed to us by the Holy Spirit and holy scripture. The church acknowledges that all members have the right of individual interpretation of the principles of the Christian faith and respects them in their honest convictions. In accordance with the teaching of our Lord, the church recognizes two sacraments: Baptism and Holy Communion.

OPEN AND AFFIRMING STATEMENT

We, the members of First Congregational Church, United Church of Christ, Columbus, Ohio, welcome and affirm all. We believe we are all created in God's image and called to love our neighbors as Jesus loves us. We believe we are many members, but one body in Christ, called to unite all people in God's love. We are a community seeking God's presence and love in our lives. We seek to unite persons of all ages, races, nationalities, ethnicities, sexual orientations, sexes, gender identities and expressions, family structures, mental, intellectual and physical conditions, economic circumstances, political, theological and faith backgrounds. Together in our diversity, and being empowered and directed by the Holy Spirit, we will "do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with our God." (Micah 6:8)
