Welcome to First Church!

You are welcomed, affirmed, and loved here; our faith informs us that you are a child of a loving God. Your characteristics and gifts will enrich our congregation. In this community, you will be celebrated, embraced, and honored, no matter how you identify or how your identity may evolve.

Wherever you are on your faith journey, we invite you to join us in our diverse yet united experience.

Please use this time for quiet preparation for worship.

Prelude

Ciaccona Bernardo Storace (fl. 1664)

Enter to Worship Rev. Dr. William R. Nirote

Leader: Creator God, we gather in your protective and generous embrace

To pause and connect with you and with one another.

People: In a season of change, of turning leaves and dwindling daylight,

We remember you as the fixed star of love, justice and forgiveness in the world.

Please stand as you are able. (* indicates congregation standing)

*Leader: Be with us as we reflect, as we connect, as we turn inward,

Listening to your still small voice,

People: encourage and affirm us as we turn outward, to be the church in your world.

Come, Holy Spirit, Come.

*Processional Hymn

Nettleton, Wyeth's Repository of Sacred Music, Part Second, 1813

"Come, thou fount of every blessing"

Robert Robinson, 1758, alt.

*Welcome and Passing of the Peace

Rev. jessica young chang

Leader: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Let us greet one another with a sign of Christ's peace.

* When you return to your seat, please find the blue Welcome notebook at the end of the pew, sign it and pass it on to your neighbor so we many greet one another by name.

Invocation Rev. Nirote

Leader: Creator God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidden, cleanse our hearts of fear, burden, anger, and shame by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit.

In Your church and with Your presence, let us brilliantly love you and worthily magnify your name.

People: Holy One, teach us to trust each other,

to move boldly into your new vision for your people.

Make each of us extensions of your will and enablers of your vision.

We pray these things in your name,

the name which is Justice, the name which is Love, Amen.

THE FIRST SCRIPTURE READING

2 TIMOTHY 1:1-14

Jennifer Fry

Leader: A reading from the Second Letter of Paul to Timothy, the first chapter.

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, for the sake of the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus,

To Timothy, my beloved child:

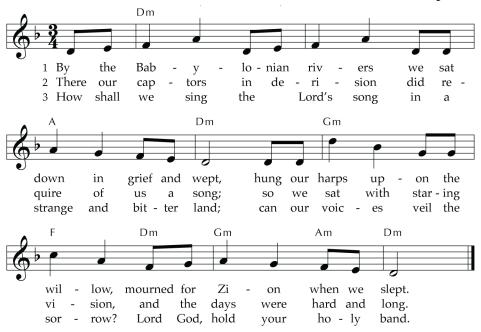

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

I am grateful to God—whom I worship with a clear conscience, as my ancestors did—when I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day. Recalling your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy. I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, lives in you. For this reason I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands; for God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline.

Do not be ashamed, then, of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel, relying on the power of God, who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace. This grace was given to us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. For this gospel I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher, and for this reason I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know the one in whom I have put my trust, and I am sure that he is able to guard until that day what I have entrusted to him. Hold to the standard of sound teaching that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us.

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

*Gospel Acclamation I Peter 1:25

The Choir introduces the Alleluia, which is then repeated by the Congregation. Following the verse, all repeat the Alleluia.

Verse:

The word of the Lord remains forever.

This is the word that has been proclaimed to you.

*The Gospel

Luke 17:5-10

Rev. young chang

Leader: A reading from the Gospel according to Luke, the seveneenth chapter.

The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith!" The Lord replied, "If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

"Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, 'Come here at once and take your place at the table'? Would you not rather say to him, 'Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink'? Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded? So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, 'We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!'"

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

THE OFFERTORY

To give online, please scan this QR code, or see additional instructions in the Depart to Serve leaflet:

Mission Invitation Jim Lowe

Cash and designated checks go to Neighbors in Need (NIN), a special mission offering of the United Church of Christ that supports ministries of justice and compassion in the United States. One-third of the offering is given to the Council for American Indian Ministries and the remaining two-thirds supporting UCC justice ministries. In 2025, the Neighbors in Need Offering supported 26 grant recipients across the UCC who were engaged in projects of direct service and advocacy. Thank you for your generosity.

Offertory Anthem "Do not be afraid"

Philip Stopford, 2010 Gerard Markland, 1978

Do not be afraid, for I have redeemed you,

I have called you by your name; you are mine.

When you walk through the waters, I'll be with you;

you will never sink beneath the waves.

When the fire is burning all around you,

you will never be consumed by the flames.

When the fear of loneliness is looming, then remember I am at your side.

When you dwell in the exile of a stranger, remember you are precious in my eyes.

You are mine, O my child. I am your Father, and I love you with a perfect love.

*Doxology Old 100th

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise Christ, all creatures here below; Praise Holy Spirit evermore; Praise Triune God, whom we adore.

THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

We practice open communion: Wherever you are on your faith journey, you are welcome at the Lord's table.

Leader: Our God is here.

People: God's Spirit is with us.

Leader: Open your hearts to the One who is Love.

People: We open our hearts to you, O God.

Leader: Let us give thanks to God who sets us free.

People: It is our joy to give you thanks!

COMMUNION PRAYER

Rev. young chang and Rev. Nirote

SHARING OF THE ELEMENTS

Rev. young chang and Rev. Nirote

Please come forward as directed by the vergers to receive the common elements for communion.

Receive the bread from the pastor or take a Gluten-free piece from the tray.

As you approach the cup, dip just the edge of the bread into the juice (this is called intinction) and consume it.

If you are unable to rise and come forward and would still like to partake of communion, please tell a verger when they are at your pew.

If you are worshipping online, you are invited to gather elements of communion in your home.

COMMUNION ANTHEM "I come with joy to meet my Lord"

Robert W. Lehman, 2021 Brian Wren, 1968

I come with joy to meet my Lord forgiven, loved, and free, in awe and wonder to recall his life laid down for me.

I come with Christians far and near to find, as all are fed, the new community of love in Christ's communion bread, As Christ breaks bread and bids us share, each proud division ends.
The love that made us, makes us one, and strangers now are friends,

And thus with joy we meet our Lord, his presence ever near, is in such friendship better known, we see and praise him here.

Together met, together bound we'll go our different ways, and as his people in the world, we'll live and speak his praise.

COMMUNION PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Rev. young chang

All: God of Abundance, we thank you for refreshing us at Your table and sharing with us the gift of Christ.
Strengthen our faith, increase our love for one another, and send us forth into the world in courage and peace, rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Legacy Sunday

Thank you to everyone who shared in setting up, bringing food and cleaning up on Legacy Sunday! The weather was perfect to be outside and enjoy each other's company and play the fun games set up on the west lawn.

Thank you to the Trustees and Church Vitality members for their work in organizing the day. We also want to thank our custodians who moved tables and chairs for us. There were other church members who showed up to help and we are thankful for all they did.

Please check Connections for photos of the fun afternoon.

The Pie Contest Winners

Congratulations to pie bakers, Kelly Dodd with the best tasting pie, Sarah Reed for the best pie presentation, and Victor John for the best overall pie.

National Coming Out Day Saturday, October 11

National Coming Out Day is on October 11. It is the anniversary of the 1987 National March on Washington for Lesbian and Gay Rights, a significant event in LGBTQ+ history. Founded in 1988 by Robert Eichberg and Jean O'Leary, the day was established to celebrate the courage of coming out and to raise awareness about LGBTQ+ issues.

First Congregational Church UCC has been an Open and Affirming Congregation since 2002, and we would like to extend an extravagant welcome and celebrate National Coming Out Day with our LGBTQ+ siblings far and wide by sharing video messages with words of encouragement, joy, and love.

If you would like to participate in this fun and exciting project, today, October 5, following each service, Melissa Kulwicki, Communications Manager, will be available to video your message. The messages will be compiled and posted on the First Church Facebook and Instagram Pages. If you want to participate, you can also email your video to Melissa at mkulwicki@first-church.org no later than noon on Wednesday, October 8.

Cyber Security Workshop Sunday, October 12 12:15 p.m.

Bring your lunch and join First Church Member and IT Specialist Stefan Duga to learn more about how you can stay safe in this digital world.

Please register on Realm by clicking the QR code.

Lunch Bunch Tuesday, October 14 12 Noon

Pizza makes for a great lunch and who doesn't love Italian so let's get together at Borgata's. Borgata's is a casual eatery serving New York-style pizzas and home-cooked Italian fare. It's located at 2285 W. Dublin-Granville Road in Worthington.

A Hymn Festival Sunday, October 19 4 p.m.

The Organ, the Choir, and the Congregation will come together for a Hymn Festival with Richard Webster.

Noted composer, arranger, and choral conductor, Richard Webster formerly of Trinity at Copley Square in Boston, leads us in a hymn festival with the First Church Choir, brass, percussion, organs, and congregational song!

First Serves Sunday, October 26 10 a.m.

First Serves is collecting candy for the Gladden Community House's Halloween Party. Bring your candy to the giving tree!

For more information please talk to Leslie Fulford.

Time Out Dinner Wednesday, October 29 6 p.m.

Award-winning chef Mike Mariola founded The Rail Burger in 2011 as a full-service burger restaurant and bar suitable for any occasion. Over time, Mike's vision for the concept shifted and led to the reimagination of a new brand - The Rail Craft Kitchen. It's a fun place to gather and get to know each other.

The Rail Craft Kitchen is located at 1064 Dublin Road, in Grandview Crossing. Come join in and use the QR Code to register on Realm to reserve your place at the table.

Book Club Wednesday, November 5 7 p.m.

Next month the FCC Book Club will read The Mighty Red by Louise Erdrich. This work of fiction is set in North Dakota's Red River Valley and traces the lives of the Tabor townspeople in 2008 and 2009, shortly after the financial crash.

To receive book club emails and the Zoom link please contact Kathy Reed at kbreed2010@gmail.com.

BREAD — Being Gnats

If you have been out this summer, you probably have encountered them, those little pesky creatures. They don't do much harm, but they are very annoying, and can take the fun out of your outdoor plans. You probably heard the story in Sunday school, how one of the plagues visited on Pharaoh to put pressure on him to allow the Israelites to leave Egypt, was the plague of the gnats. As the bible tells the story, this was one plague that Pharaoh's magicians could not duplicate. The gnats, seemingly originating from ordinary dust, were in dense swarms all over Egypt, and they were effective in causing Pharaoh to promise to release the Israelites.

As we consider our current political situation, feeling quite powerless to release the ICE prisoners, or to care for the starvation in Gaza or any of the other unjust inflictions that are visited on our own neighbors in Columbus' less privileged neighborhoods, we are invited to become like those old-testament gnats that got Pharaoh's attention, not because of the harm they caused by themselves, but because of his inability to ignore them.

Joining hands with the many congregations that have joined the BREAD organizations to insist on proven effective solutions to our inexcusable inability to provide low income housing, improve the air we breathe, invest in our schools, and all the other stagnant issues that our politicians are deftly avoiding to seriously address, we could make a difference. Individually doing that is impossible.

Please join me, Antoinette Koolesman-Beynen, on Wednesday, October 22 at Westminster-Thurber at 7:00 pm to discuss what is on your hearts and how we can turn into gnats! We will meet in the Art Room in the Thurber Tower, 645 Neil Avenue.

FIRST CHURCH IS A FAITH COMMUNITY

† Called together by God, the Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer of life, to worship, pray and serve;

† Led by Jesus Christ, our Teacher and Savior, to learn the faith and welcome all God's children;

† Empowered by the Holy Spirit to witness God's love and justice between ourselves, and throughout the world.

We covenant with the Lord Jesus Christ and one another, and bind ourselves in the presence of God to live together in all God's ways as revealed to us by the Holy Spirit and holy scripture. The church acknowledges that all members have the right of individual interpretation of the principles of the Christian faith and respects them in their honest convictions. In accordance with the teaching of our Lord, the church recognizes two sacraments: Baptism and Holy Communion.

OPEN AND AFFIRMING STATEMENT

We, the members of First Congregational Church, United Church of Christ, Columbus, Ohio, welcome and affirm all. We believe we are all created in God's image and called to love our neighbors as Jesus loves us. We believe we are many members, but one body in Christ, called to unite all people in God's love. We are a community seeking God's presence and love in our lives. We seek to unite persons of all ages, races, nationalities, ethnicities, sexual orientations, sexes, gender identities and expressions, family structures, mental, intellectual and physical conditions, economic circumstances, political, theological and faith backgrounds. Together in our diversity, and being empowered and directed by the Holy Spirit, we will "do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with our God." (Micah 6:8)
