

WELCOME TO FIRST CHURCH!

You are welcomed, affirmed, and loved here; our faith informs us that you are a child of a loving God. Your characteristics and gifts will enrich our congregation. In this community, you will be celebrated, embraced, and honored, no matter how you identify or how your identity may evolve. Wherever you are on your faith journey, we invite you to join us in our diverse yet united experience.

*OPENING PRAYER

Rev. jess

Leader: God of the Ages, there are big ways and small ways
You draw us close to you.
Sometimes the spiritual intimacy You offer us is so different from what we know, we don't know where to turn or what to say.
Be patient with us God.
Remind us that there is nothing that separates us from Your love, that you know the rhythm of our breath and that you have put Your fingerprint on our hearts.

People: Remind us how prized we are by You,
that You have called us,
and You call us over and over.
Draw close to us, Holy Spirit.
Soften us, that we may draw close to You.
Fill us with the breath and strength of our spiritual ancestors, that we may express and demonstrate Your love
in our personal and congregational work for justice.
In the name of the Son of Justice, Christ, we pray, Amen.

LISTENING

THE FIRST SCRIPTURE READING

1 Corinthians 1:10-18

Dean Hafey

Leader: A reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians, the first chapter.

Now I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you be in agreement and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same purpose. For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there are quarrels among you, my brothers and sisters. What I mean is that each of you says, "I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos," or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ." Has Christ been divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, so that no one can say that you were baptized in my name. (I did baptize also the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized anyone else.) For Christ did not send me to baptize but to proclaim the gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its power.

For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

Leader: A reading from the Gospel according to Matthew, the fourth chapter.

When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, so that what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

“Land of Zebulun, land of Naphtali, on the road by the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles—
the people who sat in darkness
have seen a great light, and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death
light has dawned.”

From that time Jesus began to proclaim, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.”

As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea—for they were fishermen. And he said to them, “Follow me, and I will make you fish for people.” Immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed him.

Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people.

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

Leader: Everytime we take a breath,

People: Gratitude is our practice.

Leader: Every time we eat a meal,

People: Gratitude is our practice.

Leader: Every time we gather at the table of Christ,

People: Gratitude is our practice.

Leader: We gather at your table, Jesus, to share in the awareness and remembrance of you.

People: When we share the bread and the cup as the body of Christ, we do it in the same spirit of holiness, of mindfulness, aware that we are alive, together, and in this present moment. Come, Lord Jesus, Come.

Leader: Praying now as Jesus taught us, we say with the words most comfortable for us,

All: Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

First Serves Sunday, January 25 11 a.m.

Our January First Serves mission will be a diaper drive for CelebrateOne! CelebrateOne is a nonprofit organization and the City of Columbus' initiative focused on ensuring every baby reaches its first birthday and beyond. They work with families, healthcare providers, community partners, and local leaders to reduce infant mortality and support healthy pregnancies, safe beginnings, and strong families across Columbus.

Items to be donated need to be unopened and unused packs of diapers in any child size, and unopened packs of diaper wipes. Please bring your donated items to the Education Wing's Giving Tree. We will also collect money to purchase diapers and wipes for this cause (see the Giving Tree for cash amounts). All donations should be delivered by Sunday, January 25. Please join us after the annual meeting to help load up diapers and wipes for delivery!

Please reach out to Donna and Denise Vogt at dvogt@first-church.org with any questions. To learn more about CelebrateOne and how to get involved, please visit <https://celebrateone.org/>

Sacred Earth Eco-Tips

Did you know you can take your string lights, live Christmas trees and greenery to SWACO's Franklin County Recycling Convenience Center at 2566 Jackson Pike? Many communities offer free curbside pickup of live trees or other holiday greenery, but you can also drop them off at the Recycling Convenience Center, which even accepts styrofoam. By eliminating the complexity often associated with recycling, SWACO intends to make it second nature for Franklin County residents to divert recyclable items from landfills, fostering a more sustainable future for our region.

Here at First Church we continue to accept prescription bottles by the Giving Tree in the Education wing.

Annual Meeting & Chili Cook-off Sunday, January 25

On January 25, following a 10 a.m. worship service, First Congregational Church will hold its Annual Meeting. At the meeting, members will receive a copy of the church's annual report, and approve last year's minutes, our annual budget, and the nomination of new commissioners.

Following the meeting there will be a Chili Cook-off in Parish Hall. Please plan to attend both events and bring your best chili creations or favorite corn bread. Your crockpots can be dropped off in Parish Hall before the 10 a.m. worship service. See you all at next week's events.

Livestream Ministry Seeking Volunteers

The Livestream Ministry is seeking volunteers to join the team that is extending our Sunday worship services to online viewers in Central Ohio and beyond. No video production experience is needed. The team provides the training, and the permanently-installed equipment is straightforward to use.

Extend your worship by being a part of our congregation's Extravagant Welcome to members and visitors. Online worshipers are members of our faith community participating from home or while traveling. We also have viewers that are seeking a spiritual resting place or simply enjoying First Church's preaching and music.

The current team is looking for volunteers for a one-Sunday-service-a-month commitment level. The commitment each Sunday is 30 minutes before the start of worship through the end of the service. There is the potential for offering recording and streaming services for weddings, memorial services, and other events in the sanctuary and Parish Hall as well. If you are interested or ready to join and serve please email Mike Kennedy at mkenedy@first-church.org.

I Matter 2026: The Strength Within Us Sunday, February 1, Noon to 4 p.m.

Girls grades 6-12 and the mothers/mother figures in their lives are encouraged to attend this free workshop on healthy relationships and wellness conducted by ROX, The Center for Family Safety and Healing, and Nationwide Children's Hospital. Please contact Leslie Fulford at lfulford@first-church.org for registration information, and to attend together. The event is free but registration is required and does sell out.

First Church Book Club Wednesday, February 4 7 p.m. on Zoom

Come enjoy lively conversation and get to know other church members with the First Church Book Club when we discuss John & Paul: A Love Story in Songs by Ian Leslie.

What are your favorite Beatles' songs? We each have them. The Beatles shook the world to its core in the 1960s and new generations continue to fall in love with their songs and their story.

John Lennon and Paul McCartney knew each other for 23 years, from 1957 to 1980. Their friendship changed the world, their chemistry and friendly rivalry sparked extraordinary creativity. This intimate book shares insights into their music and the nature of creativity, collaboration, and human intimacy.

Want to receive book club emails or the Zoom link? Please email Kathy Reed at kbreed2010@gmail.com.

FIRST CHURCH IS A FAITH COMMUNITY

† Called together by God, the Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer of life, to worship, pray and serve;

† Led by Jesus Christ, our Teacher and Savior, to learn the faith and welcome all God's children;

† Empowered by the Holy Spirit to witness God's love and justice between ourselves, and throughout the world.

We covenant with the Lord Jesus Christ and one another, and bind ourselves in the presence of God to live together in all God's ways as revealed to us by the Holy Spirit and holy scripture. The church acknowledges that all members have the right of individual interpretation of the principles of the Christian faith and respects them in their honest convictions. In accordance with the teaching of our Lord, the church recognizes two sacraments: Baptism and Holy Communion.

OPEN AND AFFIRMING STATEMENT

We, the members of First Congregational Church, United Church of Christ, Columbus, Ohio, welcome and affirm all. We believe we are all created in God's image and called to love our neighbors as Jesus loves us. We believe we are many members, but one body in Christ, called to unite all people in God's love. We are a community seeking God's presence and love in our lives. We seek to unite persons of all ages, races, nationalities, ethnicities, sexual orientations, sexes, gender identities and expressions, family structures, mental, intellectual and physical conditions, economic circumstances, political, theological and faith backgrounds. Together in our diversity, and being empowered and directed by the Holy Spirit, we will "do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with our God." (Micah 6:8)
