

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

WORSHIP AT ELEVEN
JULY 12, 2026
SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

WELCOME TO FIRST CHURCH!

You are welcomed, affirmed, and loved here; our faith informs us that you are a child of a loving God. Your characteristics and gifts will enrich our congregation. In this community, you will be celebrated, embraced, and honored, no matter how you identify or how your identity may evolve. Wherever you are on your faith journey, we invite you to join us in our diverse yet united experience.

Please use this time for quiet preparation for worship.

ENTER TO WORSHIP

Martha Worth

Leader: When we stand at the edge of fear and worry,

People: God invites us to step into the waters of faith and trust.

*Please stand as you are able. (indicates congregation standing)

*Leader: When we stand at the edge of the world's pain and need,

People: Jesus invites us to step into the land of humble service.

Leader: When we stand at the edge of our hunger and thirst:

People: The Spirit invites us to sit at the Table of grace.

Come let us worship!

*WELCOME AND PASSING OF THE PEACE

Rev. Dr. William R. Nirote

Leader: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Let us greet one another with a sign of Christ's peace.

 When you return to your seat, please find the blue Welcome notebook at the end of the pew, sign it and pass it on to your neighbor so we may greet one another by name.*

INVOCATION

Rev. jessica young chang

Leader: With open arms You welcome all who call on Your name—who acknowledge You as Lord, and look to You in faith.
No one stands outside the circle of Your mercy and love.
And so we come to offer You our worship—
to declare that You are our God, and that we are Your people, called and chosen by You from the very beginning.

People: Through the presence of Your Holy Spirit open our eyes to see You here;
open our minds to receive Your truth,

and our mouths to speak and sing Your praise.
For You alone are God—
worthy of all praise and worship, now and to the end of time. Amen.

THE FIRST SCRIPTURE READING

Romans 8:1-11

Mrs. Worth

Leader: A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans, the eighth chapter.

There is no longer any condemnation, however, for those who are in Christ Jesus. The law of the Spirit—the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has freed you from the law of sin and death. What the Law was powerless to do because human nature made it so weak, God did—by sending the Only Begotten in the likeness of sinful flesh as a sin offering, thereby condemning sin in the flesh. In this way, the just demands of the Law could be fulfilled in us, who live not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. Those who live according to the flesh have their mind set on the things of the flesh; those who live by the Spirit, on things of the Spirit.

The mind of the flesh is death, but that of the Spirit is life and peace. The mind of the flesh stands in opposition to God; it is not subject to God's law—indeed, it cannot be, since those who are in the flesh cannot please God. But you are not in the flesh; you are in the Spirit, since the Spirit of God dwells in you. Those who do not have the Spirit of Christ do not belong to Christ. But if Christ is in you, then though the body is dead because of sin, the spirit lives because of righteousness. If the Spirit of the One who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, then the One who raised Christ from the dead will also bring your mortal bodies to life through the Spirit dwelling in you.

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

THE PSALTER

Psalm 65:9–14

The congregation joins in singing the entirety of the Psalm.

Each measure of the chant corresponds to one half-verse of the Psalm, with notes changing at the | symbol.

9. You visit the earth and water it abundantly;
you make it very | plenteous;
the river of God is full of | water.
10. You prepare the | grain,
for so you provide for the | earth.
11. You drench the furrows and smooth out the | ridges;
with heavy rain you soften the ground and bless its | increase.
12. You crown the year with your | goodness,
and your paths overflow with | plenty.
13. May the fields of the wilderness be rich for | grazing,
and the hills be clothed with joy.
14. May the meadows cover themselves with flocks,
and the valleys cloak themselves with | grain;
let them shout for joy and | sing.

The Choir introduces the Alleluia, which is then repeated by the Congregation.

Following the verse, all repeat the Alleluia.

Verse: The seed is the word of God, Christ is the sower.
All who come to him will have life forever.

*THE GOSPEL

Matthew 13:1-9,18-23

Rev. Nirote

Leader: A reading from the Gospel according to Matthew, the tenth chapter.

Later that day, Jesus left the house and sat down by the lake shore. Such great crowds gathered that he went and took a seat in a boat, while the crowd stood along the shore. He addressed them at length in parables: "One day, a farmer went out sowing seed. Some of the seed landed on a footpath, where birds came and ate it up. Some of the seed fell on rocky ground, where there was little soil. This seed sprouted at once since the soil had no depth, but when the sun rose and scorched it, it withered away for lack of roots. Again, some of the seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it. And some of it landed on good soil, and yielded a crop thirty, sixty, even a hundred times what was sown. Let those who have ears to hear, hear this!"

"Now listen to the parable of the sower. When people hear the message about the kingdom of God without understanding it, the Evil One comes along and snatches away what was sown in their hearts. This is the seed sown along the path. Those who received the seed that fell on rocky ground are the ones who hear the word and at first welcome it with joy. But they have no roots, so they last only for a while. When some setback or persecution comes because of the message, they quickly fall away. Those who receive the message that fell among the thorns are the ones who hear the word, but then worldly anxieties and the lure of wealth choke it off, and the message produces no fruit. But those who receive the seed that fell on rich soil are those who hear the message and understand it. They produce a crop that yields a hundred, or sixty or thirty times what was sown."

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

Rev. Nirote

Leader: Let us together lift our hearts and voices to God.
 Let us pray for those who weep and for those who cause their weeping.
People: Hear our prayer, O God.
 Leader: For those who are without food, clothes, and a place of shelter.
People: Hear our prayer, O God.
 Leader: For those who live without hope and meaning,
People: Hear our prayer, O God.
 Leader: For those who live as the objects of the whims of others,
People: Hear our prayer, O God.
 Leader: For those who live with wars and the constant fear of war,
People: Hear our prayer, O God.
 Leader: For those who distort the good news of the gospel,
People: Hear our prayer, O God.
 Leader: For those who make gods of things and of themselves,
People: Hear our prayer, O God.
 Leader: Let us pray for members of this community who need our support and love. We pray for...
People: Hear our prayer, O God.
 Leader: Thank you loving God for having heard us. Take our prayers to your heart and return together in the prayer that Jesus taught us.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

All: Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name.
 Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
 Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

MISSION INVITATION

Rev. young chang

“If you have more than enough material possessions and see your neighbors in need yet close your hearts to them, how can the love of God be living in you?” –1 John 3:17

Out of gratitude to God and in keeping with our mission and values, every week our offering goes to support a vanguard humanitarian organization. Cash and designated gifts go to support B.R.E.A.D. (Building Responsibility, Equality, and Dignity). B.R.E.A.D. is the organization through which our congregation responds to our call to do justice. B.R.E.A.D. has a nearly 30-year history of improving the quality of life in Central Ohio by researching serious community problems and utilizing the power of people from a wide range of different faith traditions, to press public officials to implement proven solutions to those problems. B.R.E.A.D. rises! Thank you for your generosity.

You can use the QR code below to donate to both this week’s mission and to First Church! If you are giving by cash or check and would also like to give something to First Congregational Church, please use one of the giving envelopes available in the pew racks, and mark it accordingly. Thank you so much for your consideration and generosity. Any amount significant to you is significant to us.

“Put the entire tithe into the storehouse so there be food in my house! Put me to the test, says Yahweh Omnipotent, and see if I do not open windows in the sky and pour so much blessing on you that you cannot contain it!” –Malachi 3:10

Good Works!

Engaging with Our Church and Our Community ... January – June 2026

Our church has been busy during the first six months of 2026. Though this is a period of ministerial transition, our church members continue to respond to God's call and to serve each other and our community. Over the next few weeks, we will highlight the activities and accomplishments of our commissions, boards, and Council.

Board of Deacons

We welcomed as new Deacons: Kelly Dodd, Sandra Geronimo, Dean Hafey, Cami Curren, and our new Senior Deacon-Elect, Gary Seigerst.

Our Holy Week and Easter Services included: Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, a new Saturday Easter Vigil, and an added liturgy of foot washing. Sunday Easter services were the sunrise service at 7 a.m. and the Festival Worship and Holy Communion at 11 a.m.

We are reimagining the Diaconate by allowing more flexible service terms and fluid participation, and no longer requiring deacons serve a three-year term. The Deacon Manual is being updated to reflect changes in how the diaconate operates to make it more relevant for everyone

Preserving the Past, Stepping into the Future

The replacement of the front steps is a major component of the preservation grant project. At age 95, the steps cannot be effectively repaired other than by replacement.

Because the steps form the roof of mechanical rooms of the church, the stone must be removed to reestablish a weather proofing barrier for those rooms. Also, a new drainage system will be added for further protection.

The 1931 architectural plans directed that limestone be used for the steps to match limestone trim of many building features and other entrance landings. The Columbus Historical Resources Commission has approved plans to use limestone for replacement of the front steps. A buff color of limestone has been selected to best match what is being replaced.

This construction will begin on Wednesday, July 15, at which time access to the front steps will be blocked for the next 4 months. The west narthex door will be available for entry into the church. Other entry points will not be impacted. During the summer you will be invited to information sessions where you can learn more about the preservation grant project and how you can support it.

Sacred Earth Eco Tip July is 'Plastic-Free Month'

There are many plastic swaps for every room in your home. One can start in the kitchen.

- Beeswax food wraps instead of plastic wrap are an easy swap. They are washable, compostable, and designed for reuse.
- Reusable shopping bags are also better than plastic store bags.
- Repurposed glass jars make great containers for sauces, salsa, and other leftovers.
- Dish soap bars eliminate the need for a plastic bottle. Pair it with a bamboo dish brush to make a durable cleaning solution.

EcoRoots.us is a possible resource for many eco-friendly products for the home. Making ONE change is a starting point to making our world more sustainable.

FIRST CHURCH IS A FAITH COMMUNITY

† Called together by God, the Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer of life, to worship, pray and serve;

† Led by Jesus Christ, our Teacher and Savior, to learn the faith and welcome all God's children;

† Empowered by the Holy Spirit to witness God's love and justice between ourselves, and throughout the world.

We covenant with the Lord Jesus Christ and one another, and bind ourselves in the presence of God to live together in all God's ways as revealed to us by the Holy Spirit and holy scripture. The church acknowledges that all members have the right of individual interpretation of the principles of the Christian faith and respects them in their honest convictions.

In accordance with the teaching of our Lord, the church recognizes two sacraments: Baptism and Holy Communion.

OPEN AND AFFIRMING STATEMENT

We, the members of First Congregational Church, United Church of Christ, Columbus, Ohio, welcome and affirm all. We believe we are all created in God's image and called to love our neighbors as Jesus loves us. We believe we are many members, but one body in Christ, called to unite all people in God's love. We are a community seeking God's presence and love in our lives. We seek to unite persons of all ages, races, nationalities, ethnicities, sexual orientations, sexes, gender identities and expressions, family structures, mental, intellectual and physical conditions, economic circumstances, political, theological and faith backgrounds. Together in our diversity, and being empowered and directed by the Holy Spirit, we will "do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with our God." (Micah 6:8)
