Worship at Eleven
October 18, 2026
Twenty-Second Sunday after

Welcome to First Church!

You are welcomed, affirmed, and loved here; our faith informs us that you are a child of a loving God.

Your characteristics and gifts will enrich our congregation. In this community, you will be celebrated, embraced, and honored, no matter how you identify or how your identity may evolve.

Wherever you are on your faith journey, we invite you to join us in our diverse yet united experience.

Please use this time for quiet preparation for worship.

Voluntary

Lied from Douze pièces — Gaston Litaize, 1932

Enter to Worship — Marti Van Cleef

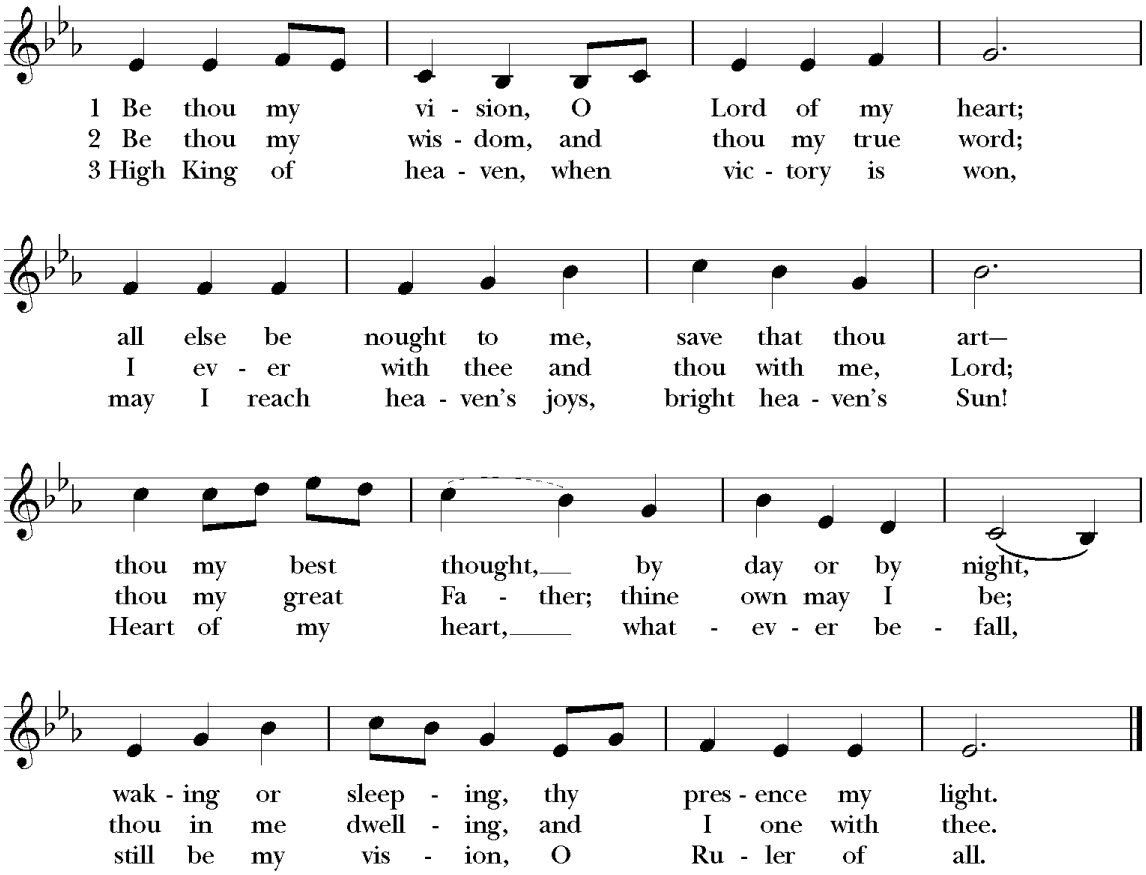

Leader: We are drawn to worship by a Reality unseen.
The One we call God is beyond human description.
People: God is more than we can ever imagine,
We sense God's presence as we meditate.

*Please stand as you are able. (indicates congregation standing)

*Leader: Tell us that you hear the cries of the lonely and the afraid.
Tell us that You care for us all.
Tell us that feeling helpless doesn't mean we are helpless.
People: O God of Hosts, come back for us!
Look down from heaven,
and watch over this vine,
the shoot you have raised up as your own.

*Processional Hymn — Slane, Irish melody

"Be thou my vision" — Irish poem; trans. Mary E. Byrne, 1905; vers. Eleanor Hull, 1912, alt.

*Welcome and Passing of the Peace — Rev. Becky David

Leader: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Let us greet one another with a sign of Christ's peace.

 When you return to your seat, please find the blue Welcome notebook at the end of the pew, sign it and pass it on to your neighbor so we many greet one another by name.*

Invocation — Rev. David

Leader: Holy God,
You have made us in Your image, and we belong to You alone.
Therefore we offer ourselves to You, in service, love, and praise.

People: Use us for the glory of Your realm and the good of Your people;
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Anthem — Benjamin Britten, 1961
Jubilate Deo — Psalm 100

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands:
serve the Lord with gladness and come before his presence with a song.
Be ye sure that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us and not we ourselves;
we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving,
and into his courts with praise.
be thankful unto him, and speak good of his name.
For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting:
and his truth endureth from generation to generation
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be: world without end, Amen.

The Hebrew Scripture — Isaiah 45:1-7 — Ms. Van Cleef

Leader: A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah, the forty-fifth chapter.

"Thus says YHWH to the Anointed One, Cyrus, whom I have taken by the right hand, for whom I have subdued nations, stripped the loins of monarchs, and thrown open all doors so that even the town gates cannot be shut: I will go before you and level the mountains; I will shatter the bronze doors and cut through the bars of iron. I will give you the hidden treasures, and hoards from secret places, so that you may know that I am YHWH, Israel's God, who calls you by name. For the sake of Leah and Rachel and Jacob, my Servant, and for the sake of Israel, my chosen one, I called you by name, conferring on you an honored title, even though you do not know me. I am YHWH, and there is no other; there is no God besides me. It is I who arm you, though you know me not, that nations may know from the rising to the setting of the sun that there is no one besides me. I am YHWH, there is no other. I form light and create darkness. I make peace and create evil. It is I, YHWH, who do all these things.

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.
People: Thanks be to God.

The Psalter Psalm 96:1–9

The Choir introduces the Antiphon, after which the People join in singing the Antiphon, repeating as indicated after the Choir chants the verses.

Sing to the Lord a new song;
sing to the Lord, all the whole earth.
Sing to the Lord and bless his Name;
proclaim the good news of his salvation from day to day.
Declare his glory among the nations
and his wonders among all peoples.
For great is the Lord and greatly to be praised;
he is more to be feared than all gods.
Antiphon.

As for all the gods of the nations, they are but idols;
but it is the Lord who made the heavens.
Oh, the majesty and magnificence of his presence!
Oh, the power and the splendor of his sanctuary!
Ascribe to the Lord, you families of the peoples;
ascribe to the Lord honor and power.
Ascribe to the Lord the honor due his Name;
bring offerings and come into his courts.
Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness;
let the whole earth tremble before him.
Antiphon.

The Epistle 1 Thessalonians 1:1-10 Ms. Van Cleef

Leader: A reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Thessalonians, the first chapter.

From Paul, Silas, and Timothy,

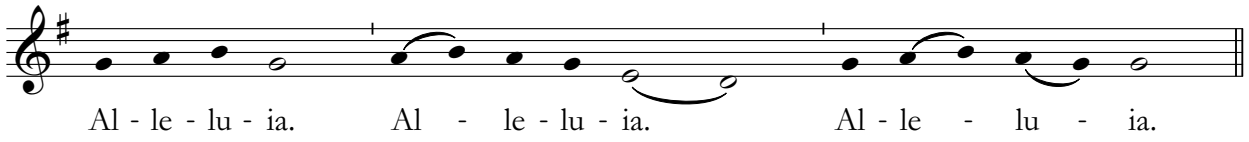

To the people of the church in Thessalonica, who belong to Abba God and our Savior Jesus Christ: May grace and peace be yours. We always thank God for all of you and remember you in our prayers. We call to mind before our God and Creator how you are proving your faith by your actions, laboring in love, and showing constancy of hope in our Savior Jesus Christ. We know, sisters and brothers beloved of God, that you have been chosen. Our preaching of the Gospel was not a mere matter of words. It was done in the power of the Holy Spirit and with complete conviction. You know very well the sort of life we led when we were with you, which was for your sake. You, in turn, followed the example set by us and by Jesus—receiving the word, despite great trials, with the joy that comes from the Holy Spirit. In this way, you've become a model for all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia.

The word of Christ has been resounding from you—and not only in Macedonia and Achaia: the news of your faith in God is celebrated everywhere, which makes it unnecessary for us to say anything more. They themselves report to us what kind of reception we had among you, how you turned from idols to God, to be faithful witnesses of the living and true God, and to await the appearance from heaven of Jesus, the Only Begotten, whom God raised from the dead and who will deliver us from the wrath to come.

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.
People: Thanks be to God.

*Gospel Acclamation — Philippians 2:15–16

The Choir introduces the Alleluia, which is then repeated by the Congregation. Following the verse, all repeat the Alleluia.

Verse: Shine like lights in the world as you hold on to the word of life.

*The Gospel — Matthew 22:15-22 — Rev. David

Leader: A reading from the Gospel according to Matthew, the twenty-second chapter.

Then the Pharisees went off and began to plot how they might trap Jesus by his speech. They sent their disciples to Jesus, accompanied by sympathizers of Herod, who said, "Teacher, we know you're honest and teach God's way sincerely. You court no one's favor and don't act out of respect for important people. Give us your opinion, then, in this case. Is it lawful to pay tax to the Roman emperor, or not?" Jesus recognized their bad faith and said to them, "Why are you trying to trick me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin which is used to pay the tax." When they handed Jesus a small Roman coin, Jesus asked them, "Whose head is this, and whose inscription?" "Caesar's," they replied. At that, Jesus said to them, "Then give to Caesar what is Caesar's, but give to God what is God's." When they heard this, they were astonished and went away.

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.
People: Thanks be to God.

Sermon — Rev. David

Prayers of the People — Rev. David

The Lord's Prayer

Leader: Let us join our voices together in the prayer of Jesus.

All: Our Father, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil,
for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

The Offertory

To give online, please scan this QR code, or see additional instructions in the Depart to Serve leaflet:

Mission Invitation Rev. David

"If you have more than enough material possessions and see your neighbors in need yet close your hearts to them, how can the love of God be living in you?" –1 John 3:17

Out of gratitude to God and in keeping with our mission and values, every week our offering goes to support a vanguard humanitarian organization. This week, cash and designated checks will support Sacred Earth's green improvements of the church. Sacred Earth is providing support to the church library with a window shade option with heat shield technology. In summer months in particular, the amount of heat generated by the morning sun is substantial. The heat shielding option could be beneficial in an area of our church that doesn't have ductwork for air conditioning. Sacred Earth is working with the Library Committee to help bring the library back as a viable option for meetings and gatherings for our church. Thank you for your generosity.

You can use the QR code to donate to both this week's mission and to First Church! If you are giving by cash or check and would also like to give something to First Congregational Church, please use one of the giving envelopes available in the pew racks, and mark it accordingly. Thank you so much for your consideration and generosity. Any amount significant to you is significant to us.

"Put the entire tithe into the storehouse so there be food in my house! Put me to the test, says Yahweh Omnipotent, and see if I do not open windows in the sky and pour so much blessing on you that you cannot contain it!" –Malachi 3:10

Offertory Anthem — Larry L. Fleming, 1973
Give Me Jesus — African American Spiritual

O, when I am alone,
O, when I am alone,
O, when I am alone,
give me Jesus.
You may have all the rest,
give me Jesus.

O, when I come to die...

And when I want to sing...

*Presentation Hymn — East Acklam, Francis Jackson, 1957
"For the fruit of all creation" — Fred Pratt Green, 1970

Stewardship Moment — Jim Griffin, Music, Art and Heritage Commission

Community Notices - Depart to Serve — Melissa Kulwicki

Leader: Let us depart with a heart to serve.
People: Thanks be to God.

*Closing Hymn — Mit Freuden zart, Bohemian Brethren's Kirchengesang, 1566

"Sing praise to God who reigns above" — Johann Jacob Schütz, 1675; tr. Frances Elizabeth Cox, 1864, alt.

Benediction — Rev. David

Voluntary
Toccata from Douze pièces — Théodore Dubois, 1886

Please be seated for the voluntary.
Thank you for attending worship this morning. We hope that you have found peace and grace here and invite you to return often. If you would like more information or have any questions about First Church, please ask one of our pastors or anyone wearing a name tag. We would be delighted to assist you.

† The Flowers this morning are given to the glory of God and with thanks for the Deacons by the Carie Shoemaker Flower Fund.

† Greeting at the Exits

Join us as we honor Native American Heritage Month with a closer look at the culture and history of the largest US tribe, the Navajo Nation. Educator and lifelong learner, Vicki Lyden, will share her experiences and insights from time spent alongside members of the Navajo Nation Reservation, offering an opportunity to deepen our understanding and appreciation of Navajo culture.

Communications and Technology Stewardship

Although the Communications and Technology Commission has existed for several years, it is still defining its role. Our constitution charges us with advancing effective communication with members, staff, and the wider community. As we look toward 2027, that charge is helping establish clearer priorities and a stronger vision for our work.

Since I became commissioner in July 2026, the commission has worked quickly to identify priorities, clarify responsibilities, and, for the first time, develop an aspirational budget for 2027. This is an important step toward building a stronger communications foundation.

One need we identified is greater coordination across the church. Communications, marketing, and advertising efforts currently happen independently in many places. We have begun working with commissions, staff, and other stakeholders to develop a coherent churchwide communications strategy and policy. This will help us communicate more effectively and clarify responsibility for planning, funding, and execution.

Several 2027 priorities represent significant technology investments that would not be possible without the congregation's support. These include improvements to microphones and other sound system components in Fellowship Hall, replacement of aging livestream equipment, and upgrades to improve reliability and make operation easier for volunteers.

Beyond equipment, we hope to strengthen our social media presence and restore simultaneous livestreaming to YouTube and Facebook. Social media is often where people first encounter the church, and restoring livestreams would help introduce them to our worship and congregation.

We've also begun work on a redevelopment of the website, giving us an opportunity to improve how we present information, tell our story, and help people engage with church life. Our website and social media are among our most important tools for connecting with members, helping others discover the church, understand who we are, and see how our congregation lives out its call to Enter to Worship, Depart to Serve.

Nathaniel Powell, Commissioner

Stewardship Campaign for 2027 Promotes Faith and Love in Action

Our church will begin its annual stewardship campaign this Sunday under the banner of "First Congregational Church at 175: Faith and Love in Action." Stewardship letters to church members were mailed last week.

The stewardship campaign seeks pledges of financial support for 2027 to meet the congregation's annual operating budget. The Stewardship and Growth Commission has set a goal of raising $850,000 from 200 households. The campaign will formally conclude with an offering of pledges on Sunday, October 25.

Throughout September and October, representatives of the church's commissions are offering brief Stewardship Moments during the worship services and written reports in "Connections" and "Depart to Serve." They are explaining their commission's goals and aspirations for 2027, as well as accomplishments in 2026.

Sacred Earth Eco Tip

Why aren't napkins, paper towels, or tissues accepted for recycling? Soft paper products such as napkins, paper towels, and tissues don't meet the quality standards necessary to turn them into new products. Soft paper products are usually made from a high percentage of recycled paper, and each time natural fibers are recycled, they become shorter and shorter. After 5-7 times through the recycling process, paper fibers are too short to be recycled again.

However, these fibers are the perfect length for rapid composting! Compost your soft paper products, or avoid them entirely with reusable options such as cloth napkins and hand towels. Think about it – for all of modern human history until recently people used cloth for cleaning up their messes and wiping their hands.

Prayer Requests

First Church's Prayer Cards are an important way for congregants to share personal struggles, celebrations, or health concerns with the ministry staff and our church community. Our prayer cards have recently undergone changes to include requests for meals from the Care & Share Kitchen.

You can find these new, updated Request Cards in each pew where the old ones used to be. Let's support one another and keep our church family connected through love and prayer.

2027 Aspirational Budget

This is the Aspirational 2027 Budget, which includes all proposed ideas/goals from commissions/staff.

The draft Revenue represents what will be required to accomplish these aspirational goals, and adjustments will be made to the final budget based on what is committed in the Stewardship campaign.

You should have received pledge campaign materials in the mail by this time - please respond generously so we can achieve these laudable goals!

First Church is a Faith Community

† Called together by God, the Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer of life, to worship, pray and serve;
† Led by Jesus Christ, our Teacher and Savior, to learn the faith and welcome all God's children;
† Empowered by the Holy Spirit to witness God's love and justice between ourselves, and throughout the world.

We covenant with the Lord Jesus Christ and one another, and bind ourselves in the presence of God to live together in all God's ways as revealed to us by the Holy Spirit and holy scripture. The church acknowledges that all members have the right of individual interpretation of the principles of the Christian faith and respects them in their honest convictions. In accordance with the teaching of our Lord, the church recognizes two sacraments: Baptism and Holy Communion.

Open and Affirming Statement

We, the members of First Congregational Church, United Church of Christ, Columbus, Ohio, welcome and affirm all. We believe we are all created in God's image and called to love our neighbors as Jesus loves us. We believe we are many members, but one body in Christ, called to unite all people in God's love. We are a community seeking God's presence and love in our lives. We seek to unite persons of all ages, races, nationalities, ethnicities, sexual orientations, sexes, gender identities and expressions, family structures, mental, intellectual and physical conditions, economic circumstances, political, theological and faith backgrounds. Together in our diversity, and being empowered and directed by the Holy Spirit, we will "do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with our God." (Micah 6:8)
