First Congregational Church
United Church of Christ

Worship at Eleven
October 25, 2026
Twenty-Second Sunday After Pentecost

Welcome to First Church!

You are welcomed, affirmed, and loved here; our faith informs us that you are a child of a loving God.

Your characteristics and gifts will enrich our congregation. In this community, you will be celebrated, embraced, and honored, no matter how you identify or how your identity may evolve.

Wherever you are on your faith journey, we invite you to join us in our diverse yet united experience.

Please use this time for quiet preparation for worship.

Voluntary
"Holy, Holy, Holy" arr. Sandra Eithun, 2012

Enter to Worship Leslie Fulford

Leader: Daily, Lord, we proclaim our faith that you are here, always.
But daily, too, we fear that you are not.

People: O God of Hosts, return to us—
let your face smile on us and we will be saved!

Leader: How can you sit idle, watching as the world falls
To the ones who would destroy it before they would share it,
Those who destroy the most vulnerable before calling us equal?

People: O God of Hosts, return to us—
let your face smile on us and we will be saved!

*Please stand as you are able. (indicates congregation standing)

*Leader: Tell us that you hear the cries of the lonely and the afraid.
Tell us that You care for us all.
Tell us that feeling helpless doesn't mean we are helpless.

People: O God of Hosts, come back for us!
Look down from heaven,
and watch over this vine,
the shoot you have raised up as your own.

*Processional Hymn
"God of the fertile fields"

Italian Hymn, Felice de Giardini, 1769
Georgia Harkness, 1955, alt.

*Welcome and Passing of the Peace — Rev. Becky David

Leader: The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People: And also with you.
Leader: Let us greet one another with a sign of Christ's peace.

 When you return to your seat, please find the blue Welcome notebook at the end of the pew, sign it and pass it on to your neighbor so we many greet one another by name.*

Invocation — Rev. jessica young chang

Leader: My God, You who are charity and love itself.
Help us to love ourselves in You, for You and by You,
and to love our neighbors for Your sake.
May we each possess You as our sole treasure and our one glory,
far dearer than all creatures or things.
Grant that we may rejoice this day and always in Your perfect love for us.
Above all else, help us always to remember that we have only one soul, that we have only one short life that must be lived only by each of ourselves, that we have only one death to die, and that there is only one glory that is eternal.
People: Amen.

Anthem — Jean Berger, 1959
"The eyes of all" — Psalm 145:15-16

The eyes of all wait upon thee; and thou givest them their meat in due season.
Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing.
The eyes of all wait upon thee; and thou givest them their meat in due season.

The Hebrew Scripture — Leviticus 19:1-2, 15-18 — Mrs. Fulford

Leader: A reading from the Book of Leviticus, the nineteenth chapter.

YHWH told Moses to tell the entire Israelite community these things:

Be holy, for I, YHWH, am holy.

Do not be corrupt in administering justice. Do not show partiality to the poor or give honor to the great. Judge your neighbor with fairness. Do not go about slandering others.

Do not profit by the blood of your neighbor. I am YWHW. Do not nurse hatred for a neighbor. If you are angry with a neighbor, speak frankly about it, to avoid stirring up ill feelings. Never seek revenge or hold a grudge toward your relatives. You must love your neighbor as you love yourself. I am YHWH.

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.
People: Thanks be to God.

The Choir introduces the Antiphon, after which the People join in singing the Antiphon, repeating as indicated after the Choir chants the verses.

Happy are they who have not walked in the counsel of the wicked, nor lingered in the way of sinners,
nor sat in the seats of the scornful!
Their delight is in the law of the Lord,
and they meditate on his law day and night.
They are like trees planted by streams of water, bearing fruit in due season, with leaves that do not wither;
everything they do shall prosper.
Antiphon.

It is not so with the wicked;
they are like chaff which the wind blows away.
Therefore the wicked shall not stand upright when judgment comes,
nor the sinner in the council of the righteous.
For the Lord knows the way of the righteous,
but the way of the wicked is doomed.
Antiphon.

The Epistle 1 Thessalonians 2:1-8 Mrs. Fulford

Leader: A reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Thessalonians, the second chapter.

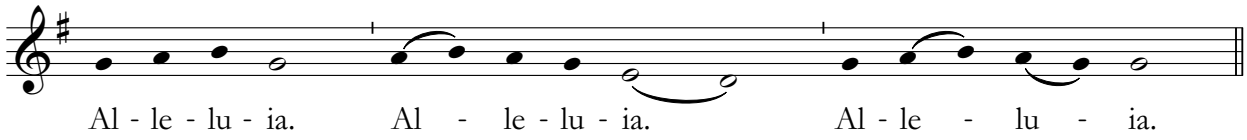

And you yourselves know, sisters and brothers, that our coming among you was not without effect. We had, as you know, been given rough treatment at Philippi, and it was our God who gave us the courage to proclaim the Good News to you in the face of stiff opposition. We don't preach because of impure motives or deceit or any sort of trickery; rather, it was God who decided that we are fit to be entrusted with the Good News, and when we are speaking, we're trying to please not mortals, but God, who can read our inmost thoughts.

You know very well—and we can swear it before God that never at any time has our speech been simple flattery or a cover for trying to get money; nor have we ever looked for any special honor from you or from anyone else—even though we could have imposed ourselves on you as apostles of Christ. On the contrary, while we were with you we were as gentle as any nursing mother caring for her little ones. So well disposed were we toward you, in fact, that we were willing to share with you not only the Good News, but our very lives as well—you had become that dear to us.

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.
People: Thanks be to God.

*Gospel Acclamation John 14:23

The Choir introduces the Alleluia, which is then repeated by the Congregation.
Following the verse, all repeat the Alleluia.

Verse: Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord, and my Father will love him and we will come to him.

*The Gospel Matthew 22:34-46 Rev. David

Leader: A reading from the Gospel according to Matthew, the twenty-second chapter.

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had left the Sadducees speechless, they gathered together, and one of them, an expert on the Law, attempted to trick Jesus with this question: "Teacher, which commandment of the Law is the greatest?" Jesus answered: "'You must love the Most High God with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind.' "That is the greatest and first commandment. The second is like it: 'You must love your neighbor as yourself! On these two commandments the whole Law is based—and the Prophets as well."

While the Pharisees were gathered around him, Jesus asked them this question: "What do you think about the Messiah? Whose descendant is the Messiah?" They said, "David's." Then Jesus asked, "Then how is it that David, inspired by the Spirit, calls the Messiah 'Sovereign'? For he says,

'The Most High said to my Sovereign,
"Sit at my right hand
until I place your enemies under your foot."'

"If David calls the Messiah 'Sovereign,' how can the Messiah be a descendant of David?"
No one could reply, and from that day on no one dared ask him any more questions.

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.
People: Thanks be to God.

Sermon Rev. David

Prayers of the People Rev. young chang

The Lord's Prayer

Leader: Let us join our voices together in the prayer of Jesus.

All: Our Father, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Mission Invitation — Rev. young chang

"If you have more than enough material possessions and see your neighbors in need yet close your hearts to them, how can the love of God be living in you?" –1 John 3:17

Out of gratitude to God and in keeping with our mission and values, every week our offering goes to support a vanguard humanitarian organization. This week, cash and designated gifts go to support Pathway Clubhouse, which provides a friendly, communal space for adults living with mental illness in Franklin County. Pathway offers the opportunity for members to participate in new experiences, while engaging with fellow members in the development of social relationships, employment and education opportunities, and community involvement. The Clubhouse Model is a national and international holistic approach to empowering its members with mental illness, while providing steps to rehabilitation. Membership in the Clubhouse is lifelong, and is at the member's discretion. Opportunities for social interaction are integral to the holistic approach of the Clubhouse model. The Pathway mission is to maximize and strengthen members' independence in working, living, and socializing in the community. Thank you for your generosity.

You can use the QR code to donate to both this week's mission and to First Church! If you are giving by cash or check and would also like to give something to First Congregational Church, please ask one of our deacons for an envelope and mark it accordingly. Thank you so much for your consideration and generosity. Any amount significant to you is significant to us.

"Put the entire tithe into the storehouse so there be food in my house! Put me to the test, says Yahweh Omnipotent, and see if I do not open windows in the sky and pour so much blessing on you that you cannot contain it!" –Malachi 3:10

Offertory Anthem — John Rutter, 1996

"Look at the world"

Look at the world, everything all around us:
look at the world, and marvel every day,
look at the world: so many joys and wonders,
so many miracles along our way.

Praise to thee, O Lord, for all creation, give us thankful hearts that we may see:
all the gifts we share and every blessing, all things come of thee.

Look at the earth bringing forth fruit and flower;
look at the sky, the sunshine, and the rain;
look at the hills, look at the trees and mountains,
valley and flowing river, field and plain.

Think of the spring, think of the warmth of summer bringing the harvest before the winter's cold.
Everything grows, everything has a season,
till it is gathered to the Father's fold.

Every good gift, all that we need and cherish comes from the Lord in token of his love;
we are his hands, stewards of all his bounty;
his is the earth, and his the heavens above.

As the Deacons bring the offering forward, please follow them up the center aisle to bring your pledge card forward and drop it into the basket at the front of the sanctuary. If you have already turned in your pledge card, we invite you to bring forward a blank card so you may still participate in this important gesture of stewardship.

First Church Engagement Fair Today in Parish Hall

following 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. worship

Come celebrate our meaningful projects and activities. Learn about our mission projects and explore opportunities for service that speak to your heart! See the many ways we work in the community and within our church family. From "done in a day" projects to serving on a committee or commission, you'll find opportunities for connection and service at the Engagement Fair.

Our First Church FREE Store will offer First Church items, including books, t-shirts, water bottles, and more. Tasty food will be served! Come celebrate our mission activities, community, and friendships!

Godly Play Today at 9 a.m.

The Godly Play Sunday school class happens during the 9 a.m. worship hour. During worship, children go to the Library then return to Parish Hall for communion. Godly Play is a creative, imaginative approach to children's faith formation. Come join in the fun!

2027 Stewardship Campaign

Bring Your Stewardship Pledge Today

During worship services today, we will conclude the formal phase of the annual stewardship campaign with a liturgy that celebrates the pledges church members have made for 2027. If you've not already made your pledge electronically or mailed your pledge to the church office, please bring your pledge to one of the worship services this Sunday. Pledge forms will be available at each entrance.

Nearly 75 percent of our church's annual operating budget is raised through pledges made by church members during the annual stewardship campaign. Let your pledge reflect your generosity in response to God's gifts to you.

Silent Film Series
Friday, October 30, at 7:30 p.m. in the Sanctuary

Just in time for Halloween, experience one of the most iconic films ever made. F.W. Murnau's Nosferatu: A Symphony of Horror (1922) introduced the world to Count Orlok, one of cinema's most chilling figures, and its shadowy imagery and mounting dread remain as powerful as ever. Joshua Stafford performs a live organ accompaniment on the church's magnificent 1931 Kimball organ, bringing this landmark of German Expressionism thrillingly to life in the spectacular sanctuary of First Congregational Church in downtown Columbus. A haunting evening perfect for the season.

Free and open to the public | Freewill offering

Adult Education
Sunday, November 1, at 10 a.m. in Classroom C

Join us as we honor Native American Heritage Month with a closer look at the culture and history of the largest US tribe, the Navajo Nation. Educator and lifelong learner, Vicki Lyden, will share her experiences and insights from time spent alongside members of the Navajo Nation Reservation, offering an opportunity to deepen our understanding and appreciation of Navajo culture.

B.R.E.A.D. Meeting
Sunday, November 1, at 12:15 p.m. in Classroom C

Please join B.R.E.A.D. on November 1, immediately after the 11:00 Service in the Church Parlor for a House Meeting that will provide insights into how B.R.E.A.D. operates and how you can participate as we seek to "do justice".

B.R.E.A.D. stands for Building Responsibility, Equality And Dignity. Join us and become part of its many successes since 1996. Email Gary Hammond at tuna.gary@gmail.com to register.

First Church Book Club
Wednesday, November 4, at 7 p.m.

Come enjoy lively conversation and get to know other church members at the First Church Book Club on Wednesday, November 4, on Zoom as we discuss NY Times #1 bestseller Whistler.

Whistler is the story of a middle-aged woman trying to make peace with her parents after a chance reunion with her long-lost stepfather. What makes a family? When do we realize the past never stays in the past? Feeling known by one other person, even for a short time, can change everything. And we each need to tell our stories in order to heal.

First-timers are always welcome! Questions? Want to receive book club emails? Please call Kathy Reed at 614-442-7742.

Lunch Bunch
Tuesday, November 10, at 12 p.m. at Cuco's Taqueria on Henderson

Once a Mexican grocery store with a tiny taco counter, Cuco's has grown into a full-fledged, successful restaurant that still sells a few Mexican goods. It's authentic Mexican cuisine.

For a great taste of Mexico in Columbus, Cuco's Taqueria is the place to be. Come join us for lunch by registering on Realm, and enjoy fun vibes, great times, and a menu with all the Mexican classics!

Justice & Mercy Missions

Upcoming missions will be:

Oct. 25 - Pathway Clubhouse
Nov. 1 - Laundry Love
Nov. 8 - Good Samaritan Fund

Sacred Earth Eco Tip

Even though temperatures are cooling off, we still love our ice cream. Did you know you can rinse out your paper ice cream cartons then recyclable them in Franklin County curbside and drop-off programs?

When we recycle, we reduce pollution and conserve our natural resources!

We keep Stephen Ministers in prayer as they care for our church members.

We keep our Search Committee and our Future Pastor in our prayers.

In the Ecumenical Prayer Cycle, we pray for the people and churches of The Caribbean. We also pray for our UCC partner, the Union of Evangelical Churches (UEK) in Germany.

New Prayer Request Cards

First Church's Prayer Cards are an important way for congregants to share personal struggles, celebrations, or health concerns with the ministry staff and our church community. Our prayer cards have undergone some changes to include requests for meals from the Care & Share Kitchen and a way to identify who is sharing a concern for another church member. We hope these changes make it easier to share concerns and request help for yourself or someone in our church family.

Supporting each other through prayer and outreach is an important but simple way you can make a difference. It only takes a moment, but it can be the connection that someone needs. You can find the new, updated Request Cards in each pew where the old ones used to be. Let's support one another and keep our church family connected through love and prayer.

Preserving the Past, Stepping into the Future

Pledges and gifts to the Preserving the Past, Stepping into the Future fundraising campaign total more than $360,000. Because you have shown great enthusiasm for the preservation project, additional repairs can be made to our historic 1931 church building.

The preservation construction committee has recommended three options as priority supplemental projects. They represent a continuation of the needed window restoration and mortar repair work.

Church council approved the recommendations subject to available funding. The supplemental projects include: 1) mortar repairs and window restoration on the west façade including kitchen, chapel, and faith formation office windows, 2) completing mortar repairs on the north façade around the Education Wing breezeway, and 3) window restoration of the servery and sacristy windows.

For those who wanted to participate in the fundraising campaign, grant pledge cards are still being accepted which will help us to complete all three supplemental projects.

Visit the grant project website: www.first-church.org/preservation for more information about the progress being made to preserve our historic building. The Preserving the Past, Stepping into the Future fundraising campaign is a great success. It is anticipated that the great success will continue as the church undertakes its annual stewardship campaign.

Veterans Day Food Drive

Egan-Ryan Funeral Home is sponsoring their twelfth annual Veterans Day Food Drive to help our local needy veterans and their families. Join with Egan-Ryan Funeral Services in giving thanks to our Vets and donate to their Veterans Day Food Drive.

Non-perishable food items, personal care items, monetary donations can be dropped off at either of Egan-Ryan's two locations at 403 E. Broad St. or 4661 Kenny Rd., Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. beginning November 1 through November 11. Call 614-221-6665 with questions.

First Church is a Faith Community

† Called together by God, the Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer of life, to worship, pray and serve;
† Led by Jesus Christ, our Teacher and Savior, to learn the faith and welcome all God's children;
† Empowered by the Holy Spirit to witness God's love and justice between ourselves, and throughout the world.

We covenant with the Lord Jesus Christ and one another, and bind ourselves in the presence of God to live together in all God's ways as revealed to us by the Holy Spirit and holy scripture. The church acknowledges that all members have the right of individual interpretation of the principles of the Christian faith and respects them in their honest convictions. In accordance with the teaching of our Lord, the church recognizes two sacraments: Baptism and Holy Communion.

Open and Affirming Statement

We, the members of First Congregational Church, United Church of Christ, Columbus, Ohio, welcome and affirm all. We believe we are all created in God's image and called to love our neighbors as Jesus loves us. We believe we are many members, but one body in Christ, called to unite all people in God's love. We are a community seeking God's presence and love in our lives. We seek to unite persons of all ages, races, nationalities, ethnicities, sexual orientations, sexes, gender identities and expressions, family structures, mental, intellectual and physical conditions, economic circumstances, political, theological and faith backgrounds. Together in our diversity, and being empowered and directed by the Holy Spirit, we will "do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with our God." (Micah 6:8)
