Leader: God of all generations,
We come to You with our creaking joints, with our cracking voices, with bodies loved and protected by You, even as they change day by day.

People: We long for Your presence and Your wisdom, for Your insight and Your care.

Listening

The First Reading Acts 2:1-21 Emma Dean and Xavier Dean

Leader: A reading from the Acts of the Apostles, the second chapter.

When the day of Pentecost arrived, they all met in one room. Suddenly they heard what sounded like a violent, rushing wind from heaven; the noise filled the entire house in which they were sitting. Something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each one. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages as she enabled them.

Now there were devout people living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled. But they were bewildered to hear their native languages being spoken. They were amazed and astonished: "Surely all of these people speaking are Galileans! How does it happen that each of us hears these words in our native tongue? We are Parthians, Medes and Elamites, people from Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya around Cyrene, as well as visitors from Rome—all Jews, or converts to Judaism—Cretans and Arabs, too; we hear them preaching, each in our own language, about the marvels of God!"

All were amazed and disturbed. They asked each other, "What does this mean?" But others said mockingly, "They've drunk too much new wine."

Then Peter stood up with the Eleven and addressed the crowd: "Women and men of Judea, and all you who live in Jerusalem! Listen to what I have to say! These people are not drunk as you think—it's only nine o'clock in the morning! No, it's what Joel the prophet spoke of:

'In the days to come
—it is our God who speaks—
I will pour out my Spirit
on all humankind.
Your daughters and sons will prophesy,
your young people will see visions,
and your elders will dream dreams.
Even on the most insignificant of my people,
both women and men,
I will pour out my Spirit in those days,
and they will prophesy.
And I will display wonders

in the heavens above
and signs on the earth below:
blood, fire and billowing smoke.

The sun will be turned into darkness
and the moon will become blood
before the coming of the great and sublime day of our God.
And all who call upon the name
of our God will be saved.'

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.
People: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel — Matthew 7:7-12 — Rev. jess

Leader: A reading from the Gospel according to Matthew, the seventh chapter.

"Ask and keep asking, and you will receive. Seek and keep seeking, and you will find. Knock and keep knocking, and the door will be opened to you. For the one who keeps asking, receives. The one who keeps seeking, finds. And the one who keeps knocking, enters.

"Is there any among you who would hand your daughter a stone when she asked for bread? Would one of you hand your son a snake when he asked for a fish? If you, with all your faults, know how to give your children what is good, how much more will your Abba God in heaven give good things to those who ask!

"Therefore treat others as you would have them treat you. This is the whole meaning of the Law and the prophets."

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.
People: Thanks be to God.

Reflection — Rev. jess

[God,] You bestow upon us your Holy Spirit, creating and renewing the church of Jesus Christ, binding in covenant faithful people of all ages, tongues, and races.

You call us into your church to accept the cost and joy of discipleship, to be your servants in the service of others, to proclaim the gospel to all the world and resist the powers of evil, to share in Christ's baptism and eat at his table, to join him in his passion and victory.

You promise to all who trust you forgiveness of sins and fullness of grace, courage in the struggle for justice and peace, your presence in trial and rejoicing, and eternal life in your realm which has no end.

Responding

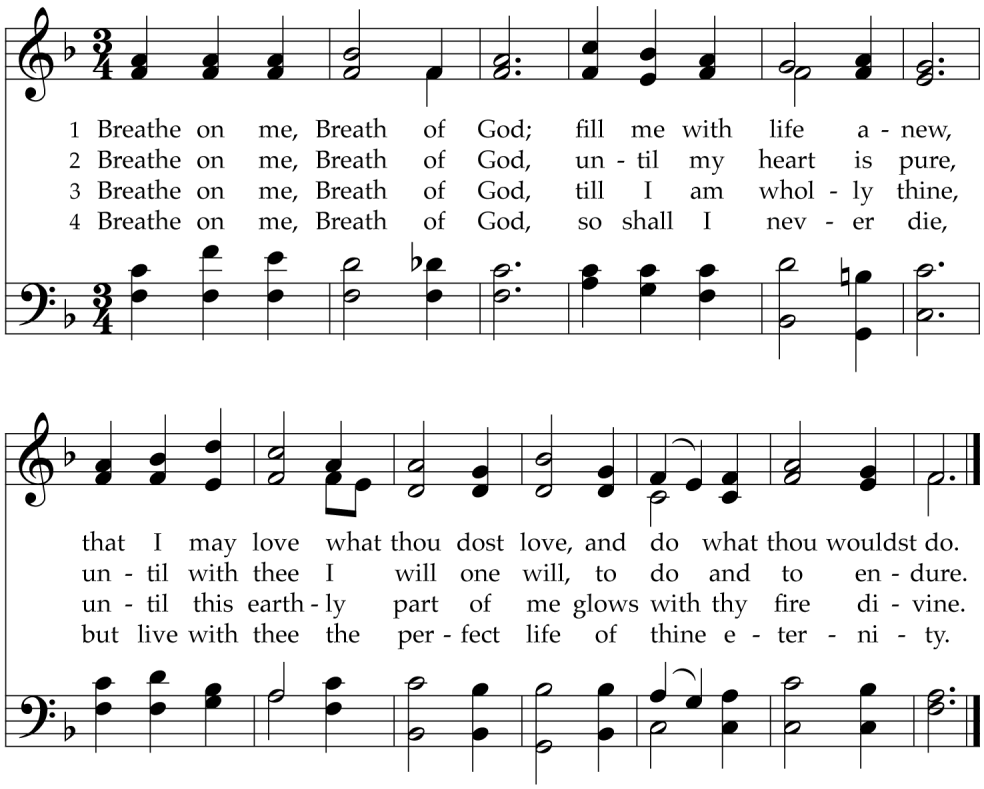

Prayers — Rev. jess

The Lord's Prayer

All: Our Father, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil,
for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Mission Invitation — Xavier Dean

"If you have more than enough material possessions and see your neighbors in need yet close your hearts to them, how can the love of God be living in you?" –1 John 3:17

Out of gratitude to God and in keeping with our mission and values, every week our offering goes to support a vanguard humanitarian organization. This week, cash and designated checks will support Charlie's Place, an outreach ministry and social services program located in Washington, D.C. dedicated to supporting individuals experiencing homelessness and low-income neighbors. A welcoming space where everyone is treated with empathy and dignity, Charlie's Place offers hot meals, haircuts, medical care, clothing and toiletries, art therapy, and social services, helping to address the social, emotional and health impacts of homelessness. In 2025, Charlie's Place accomplished: 8269 guest visits; 859 articles of clothing distributed; 433 hours of case management; 1200 bagged lunches; 102 grocery bags of food; and 1104+ volunteer shifts worked. The First Church youth group served at Charlie's Place on their mission trip, making and serving a taco lunch and greeting the day's guests.

Afterward, they met with director Reggie Cox, who shared his personal story of going from a laid off DC executive to homelessness, reluctant Charlie's Place recipient, and eventually running the program. Your financial support will help support a caring program that is close to the hearts of our First Church youth. Thank you for your generosity.

You can use the QR code to donate to both this week's mission and to First Church! If you are giving by cash or check and would also like to give something to First Congregational Church, please ask one of our deacons for an envelope and mark it accordingly. Thank you so much for your consideration and generosity. Any amount significant to you is significant to us.

"Put me to the test, says Yahweh Omnipotent, and see if I do not open windows in the sky and pour so much blessing on you that you cannot contain it!" –Malachi 3:10

Offertory Music — Emily Riggin

Communion — Rev. jess

Leader: Our God is here.
People: God's Spirit is with us.
Leader: Open your hearts to the One who is Love:
People: We open our hearts to You, O God.
Leader: Let us give thanks to God who sets us free.
People: It is our joy to give You thanks!

It is our shared joy to thank God for all God is doing in our lives, and for the time to gather around Christ's table and share the meal of remembrance, community, transformation. As we gather at this table, as we remember Christ, we also remember those who share the bread and the cup through time and space, as they return to the table nourished and comforted by the eternal and never-ending welcome of Christ.

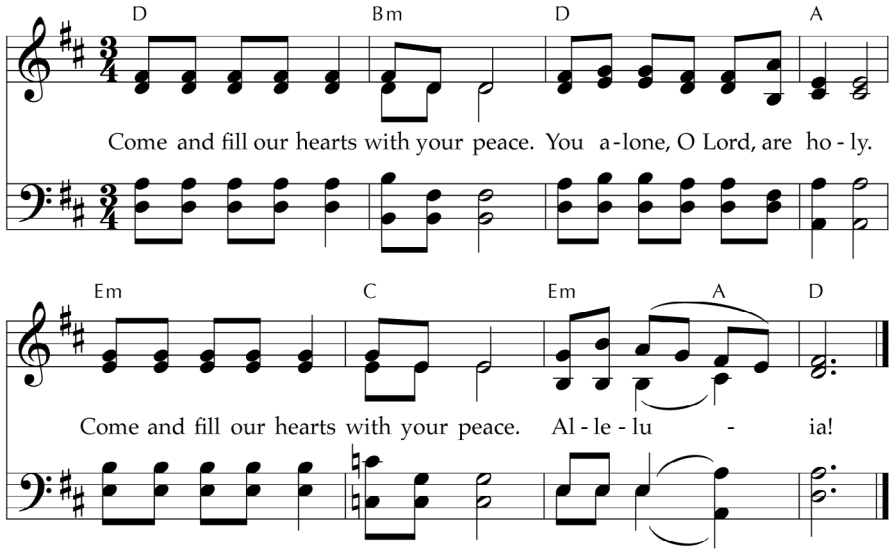

When Jesus gathered with the students, the night before the trial, the night before execution, Jesus took bread, gave thanks for it, and broke it, saying, "This is my body, broken for you. When you do this, remember me." After supper, Jesus took the cup and blessed it, saying, "This is the cup of the New Covenant poured out for all. Whenever you drink from it, remember me."

Holy One, we join hearts and hands in this covenant of faith, this sacrament of transformation, and this observance of community and sustenance with all who wish to eat at Your table and with Your children the world over. Come Holy Spirit, Come. Twine yourself within these crumbs, dive deep within these cups, so that for us as we receive these elements, we receive nothing less than Your love and presence; when we go from this place, changed by this sacrament, we embody nothing less than Your love in the world.

Leader: The gifts of God for the people of God.
People: Thanks be to God.
Leader: Come, for all things are ready.

Communion Hymn — Confitemini Domino, Jacques Berthier, 1982

"Come and fill our hearts" — Jacques Berthier, 1982

Prayer of Thanksgiving — Aubrey Schmitt

Leader: Holy One, You have connected us to You and to one another through the sharing of this meal.
Thank You for Your love, thank You for Your sacrifice,
thank You for Your connection.

People: Use Your sacrament to work in us that we might share Your love with all we meet, in all we do. Amen.

Organized by Friends and Family for Safe Streets Columbus, the event will be held on the World Day of Remembrance for Road Traffic Victims. The nonpartisan group works to make roads and vehicles safer while also improving post-crash care. Aligned with the group's work, the November 15 event will use this approach to promote strategies to end road traffic deaths and serious injuries. Additionally, the event will honor emergency services that respond in times of crisis. All are welcome to attend this deeply meaningful program of remembrance.

First Church is a Faith Community

† Called together by God, the Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer of life, to worship, pray and serve;
† Led by Jesus Christ, our Teacher and Savior, to learn the faith and welcome all God's children;
† Empowered by the Holy Spirit to witness God's love and justice between ourselves, and throughout the world.

We covenant with the Lord Jesus Christ and one another, and bind ourselves in the presence of God to live together in all God's ways as revealed to us by the Holy Spirit and holy scripture. The church acknowledges that all members have the right of individual interpretation of the principles of the Christian faith and respects them in their honest convictions. In accordance with the teaching of our Lord, the church recognizes two sacraments: Baptism and Holy Communion.

Open and Affirming Statement

We, the members of First Congregational Church, United Church of Christ, Columbus, Ohio, welcome and affirm all. We believe we are all created in God's image and called to love our neighbors as Jesus loves us. We believe we are many members, but one body in Christ, called to unite all people in God's love. We are a community seeking God's presence and love in our lives. We seek to unite persons of all ages, races, nationalities, ethnicities, sexual orientations, sexes, gender identities and expressions, family structures, mental, intellectual and physical conditions, economic circumstances, political, theological and faith backgrounds. Together in our diversity, and being empowered and directed by the Holy Spirit, we will "do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with our God." (Micah 6:8)
