First Congregational Church
United Church of Christ

Worship at Nine
November 15, 2026
Twenty-Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Welcome to First Church!

You are welcomed, affirmed, and loved here; our faith informs us that you are a child of a loving God.

Your characteristics and gifts will enrich our congregation. In this community, you will be celebrated, embraced, and honored, no matter how you identify or how your identity may evolve.

Wherever you are on your faith journey, we invite you to join us in our diverse yet united experience.

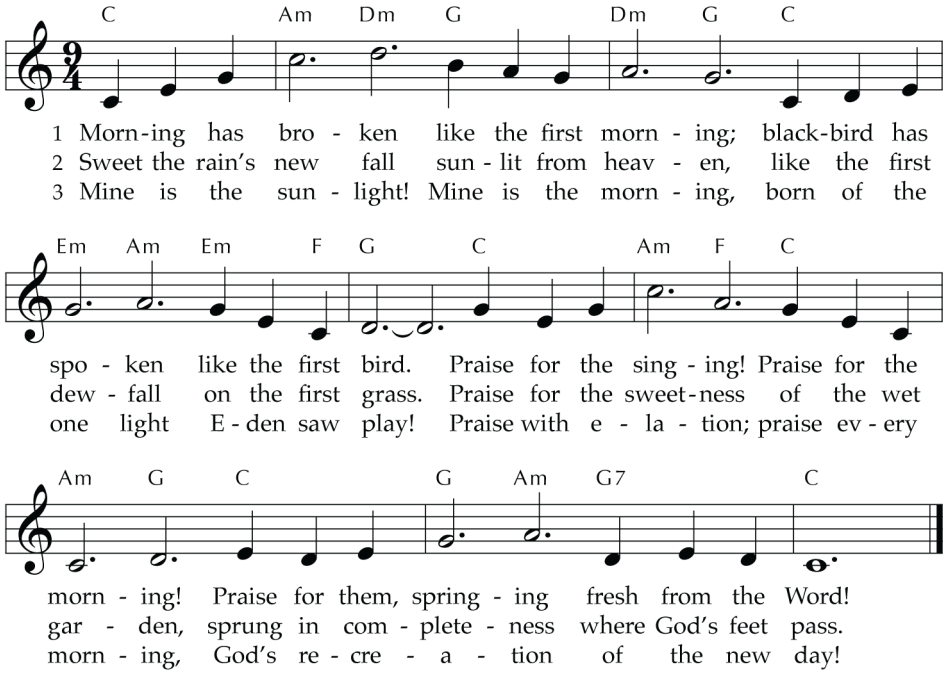

Gathering

Prelude

Ringing of the Bell

*Gathering Song — Bunessan, Gaelic melody

"Morning has broken" — Eleanor Farjeon, 1931, alt.

*Invocation — Aryn Mason

Leader: Generous God,
in abundance You give us things both spiritual and physical.
Help us to hold lightly the fading things of this earth and grasp tightly the lasting things of Your kingdom, so that what we are and do and say may be our gifts to You through Christ, who beckons all to seek the things above, where he lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit

People: Amen.

*Welcome and Passing of the Peace — Rev. Becky

Our young children are welcome to participate in "Godly Play."

Listening

The First Reading — 1 Thessalonians 5:1-11 — Aryn Mason

Leader: A reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Thessalonians, the fifth chapter.

But as to specific times and eras, sisters and brothers, you don't need me to tell you anything—you know very well that the Day of God is coming like a thief in the night. Just when people are saying, "At last we have peace and security," then destruction will fall on them with the suddenness of labor pains, and there will be no escape. But you, sisters and brothers, are not in the dark. The Day of God will not catch you like a thief. No, you are all children of light and children of the day. We don't belong to the darkness or the night. So let's not be asleep as others are—let's be awake and sober! Those who sleep do so at night, and those who get drunk do so at night. But we belong to the day, so let us be sober. Let us put on the breastplate of faith and love, and the helmet of the hope of salvation. God has destined us not to suffer wrath, but to receive salvation through our Savior Jesus Christ, who died for us so that, whether awake or asleep, we might live together with Christ. So encourage each other and build each other up, just as you're already doing.

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.
People: Thanks be to God.

The Psalter — Psalm 90:1–8

The congregation joins in singing the entirety of the Psalm.
Each measure of the chant corresponds to one half-verse of the Psalm, with notes changing at the | symbol.

1. Lord, you have been our | refuge
   from one generation to an- | other.
2. Before the mountains were brought forth,
   or the land and the earth were | born,
   from age to age you are | God.
3. You turn us back to the dust and | say,
   "Go back, O child of | earth."
4. For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is | past and like a watch in the | night.
5. You sweep us away like a | dream;
   we fade away suddenly like the | grass.
6. In the morning it is green and | flourishes;
   in the evening it is dried up and | withered.
7. For we consume away in your dis- | pleasure;
   we are afraid because of your wrathful indig- | nation.
8. Our iniquities you have set be- | fore you,
   and our secret sins in the light of your | countenance.

The Gospel Matthew 25:14-30 Rev. Becky

Leader: A reading from the Gospel according to Matthew, the twenty-fifth chapter.

"Again, it's like a wealthy landowner who was going on a journey and called in three workers, entrusting some funds to them. The first was given five thousand dollars, the second two thousand, and the third one thousand, according to each one's ability. Then the landowner went away. Immediately the worker who received the five thousand went and invested it and made another five. In the same way, the worker who received the two thousand doubled that figure. But the worker who received the one thousand instead went off and dug a hole in the ground and buried the money. "After a long absence, the traveler returned home and settled accounts with them. The one who had received the five thousand came forward bringing the additional five, saying, 'You entrusted me with five thousand; here are five thousand more.' "The landowner said, 'Well done! You are a good and faithful worker. Since you were dependable in a small matter, I will put you in charge of larger affairs. Come, share my joy!' "The one who had received the two thousand then stepped forward with the additional two, saying, 'You entrusted me with two thousand; here are two thousand more.' "The landowner said to this one, 'Cleverly done! You too are a good and faithful worker. Since you were dependable in a small matter, I will put you in charge of larger affairs. Come, share my joy!' "Finally the one who had received the one thousand stepped forward and said to the landowner, 'Knowing your ruthlessness— you who reap where you did not sow and gather where you did not scatter— and fearing your wrath, I went off and buried your thousand dollars in the ground. Here is your money back.' "The landowner exclaimed, 'You worthless, lazy lout! So you know that I reap where I don't sow and gather where I don't scatter, do you? All the more reason to deposit my money with the bankers, so that on my return I could have had it back with interest! You, there! Take the thousand away from this bum and give it to the one with the ten thousand. " 'Those who have will get more until they grow rich, while those who have not will lose even the little they have. Throw this worthless one outside into the darkness, where there is wailing and grinding of teeth.'

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.
People: Thanks be to God.

Reflection Rev. Becky

Responding

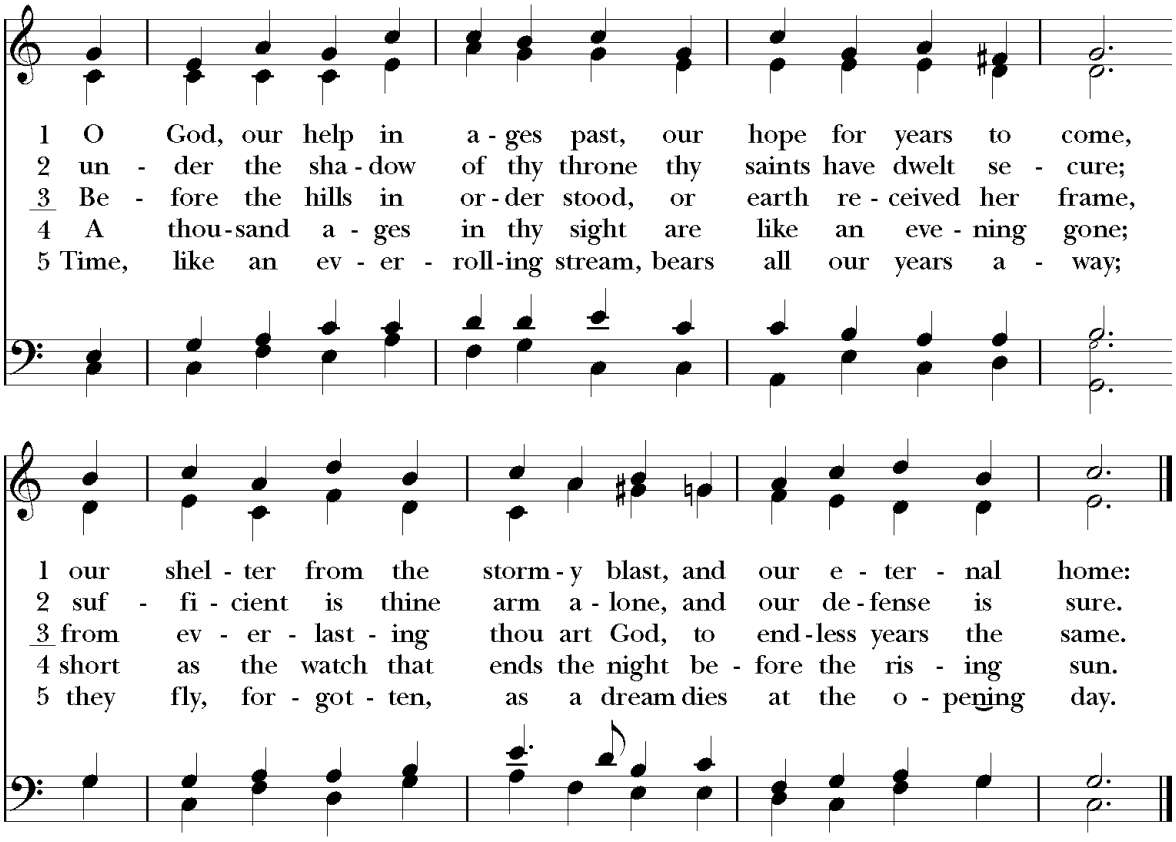

Prayers of the People Rev. Becky

The Lord's Prayer

All: Our Father, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

*Hymn St. Anne, Attr. William Croft, 1708

"O God, our help in ages past" vv. 1–4 Isaac Watts, 1719, alt.

6 O God, our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
be thou our guide while life shall last,
and our eternal home.

Mission Invitation Rev. Becky

"If you have more than enough material possessions and see your neighbors in need yet close your hearts to them, how can the love of God be living in you?" –1 John 3:17

Out of gratitude to God and in keeping with our mission and values, every week our offering goes to support a vanguard humanitarian organization. This week, cash and designated gifts go to support First Church's Good Samaritan Fund, a ministry that has served our neighbors in the Columbus community since 2002. Each month "Good Sam" provides financial help to people in need who come to our church seeking assistance. Over the years, the program has helped those facing serious hardships with many services, including payment of utility bills that are in disconnection status, providing gift cards for food or gasoline, and acquiring birth certificates. Every effort is made to meet the unique, emergency needs of these neighbors. Very often, the people we help are only one unexpected medical bill or other expense away from being evicted and becoming a homeless family. Increases in the number of folks in need, as well as rising costs, have led to reductions in how much Good Sam can offer each neighbor. Thank you for your generosity.

You can use the QR code to donate to both this week's mission and to First Church! If you are giving by cash or check and would also like to give something to First Congregational Church, please ask one of our deacons for an envelope and mark it accordingly. Thank you so much for your consideration and generosity. Any amount significant to you is significant to us.

"Put me to the test, says Yahweh Omnipotent, and see if I do not open windows in the sky and pour so much blessing on you that you cannot contain it!" –Malachi 3:10

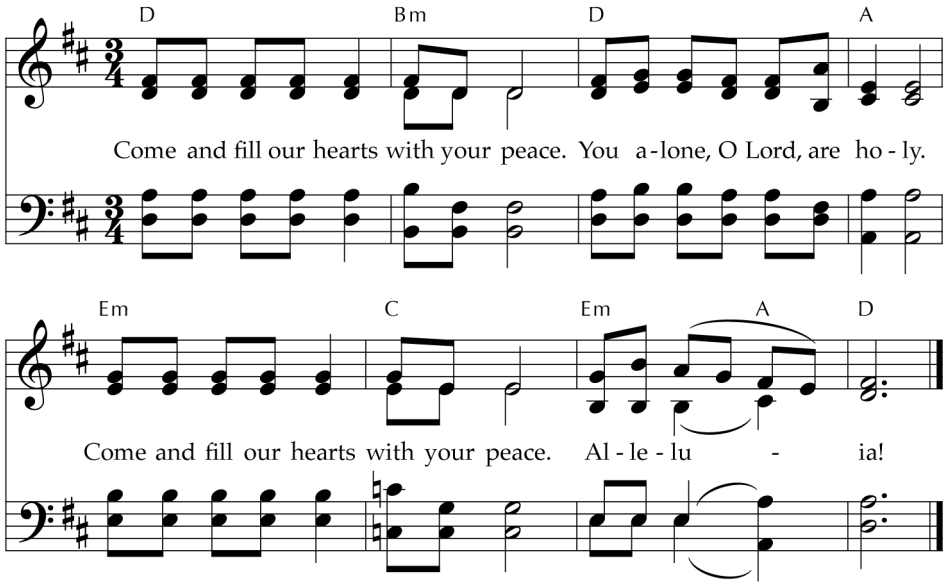

Offertory Music — Geoffrey Gear

Communion — Rev. Becky

Leader: We are the body of Christ.
People: We are made one body through the love of Jesus and the work of the Holy Spirit.
Leader: Christ's death begins with a meal.
"Eat, drink."
The task is that we would remember Christ in our bodies.
This is more than mere symbolism. It is not just poetry.
People: The path to liberation is to stay in our bodies.
Leader: In a world that demands strength, power, and might,
In a world that preys on softness, on need, and on struggle,
Christ teaches us to love through the act of closeness,
through touching our vulnerability and treasuring the tenderness of others.
People: The path to liberation is to stay in our bodies.
Leader: As we encircle the table of Christ today,
and use our bodies to remember the miracle,
the miracle of Christ, the miracle of life, the miracle of love, we take and eat, and we let our lives be changed
by always turning our faces again to God.
People: The path to liberation is to stay in our bodies.
Leader: When the Anointed One gathered with the disciples, before his own body became the portal for love of the world, Jesus took bread, gave thanks for it, and broke it, saying, "This is my body, broken for you. When you do this, remember me." After supper, Jesus took the cup and blessed it, saying, "This is the cup of the New Covenant poured out for all. Whenever you drink from it, remember me."
People: Sacred God, we gather around Your table, thankful for Your gifts. Bless now these elements, so that for us as we receive Your bread and Your cup, we receive Your love and presence; when we go from this place, changed by this sacrament, we embody Your love in the world.
Leader: The gifts of God for the people of God.
People: Thanks be to God.
Leader: Come, for all things are ready.

Communion Hymn — Confitemini Domino, Jacques Berthier, 1982

"Come and fill our hearts" — Jacques Berthier, 1982

Prayer of Thanksgiving — Rev. Becky

Leader: God of all bodies,

People: We are made more free and more loving by Your unmaking of Yourself in this sacrament.

Leader: Thank You for the union of love and peace that comes in the disintegration of cruelty and selfishness.

People: May the work of Communion meet us deeply,
and transform us completely. Amen.

Community Notices - Depart to Serve — Melissa Kulwicki

Leader: Let us depart with a heart to serve.

People: Thanks be to God.

*Closing Hymn — Lead Me, Guide Me, Doris Akers, 1953

"Lead me, guide me" — Doris Akers, 1953

*Benediction — Rev. Becky

Thank you for attending worship this morning. We hope that you have found peace and grace here and invite you to return often. If you would like more information or have any questions about First Church, please ask anyone wearing a name tag. We would be delighted to assist you.

Thoughts on Gratitude

"You've got to show kindness.
How can I love God without loving you?"

- Mahalia Jackson

Godly Play
Today at 9 a.m.

The Godly Play Sunday school class happens during the 9 a.m. worship hour. During worship, children go to the Library then return to Parish Hall for communion. Godly Play is a creative, imaginative approach to children's faith formation. Come join in the fun!

Day of Remembrance 2026
Today at 1 p.m.
Washington Gladden Social Justice Park

The City of Columbus will honor those who have been killed or seriously injured on its roads. In the Park, community members will remember all people killed and injured on central Ohio roads, streets and highways. Loved ones of those who have died or been seriously injured will speak and remember their friends and family members.

Organized by Friends and Family for Safe Streets Columbus, the event will be held on the World Day of Remembrance for Road Traffic Victims. The nonpartisan group works to make roads and vehicles safer while also improving post-crash care. Additionally, the event will honor emergency services that respond in times of crisis. All are welcome to attend this deeply meaningful program of remembrance.

Choral Evensong
Today at 4 p.m.
in the Sanctuary

Choral Evensong is rooted in the rich liturgical tradition of the 1662 Book of Common Prayer. This venerable Anglican service has a storied history that spans centuries. This service offers attendees a serene and contemplative experience, where scripture, music, and prayer intertwine. Choral Evensong invites you to connect with the divine in a profoundly meditative way, immersing yourself in a spiritual journey that is as timeless as it is beautiful.

New Members Class
Saturday, November 21, at 10 a.m. in Classroom C

If you're interested in exploring membership in First Congregational Church, our new member class will be on Saturday, November 21, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the church.

The new member class is an opportunity to meet our ministers and lay leaders, to learn our church's history, and to see how you might find fellowship, and serve and grow spiritually through our activities and programs.

You are not required to attend a new member class in order to join our church, but we encourage participation in a class to learn the opportunities and workings of our large congregation.

Registration is closed for the new member class, but please email Steve Sterrett at ssterrett@first-church.org if you are interested or for more information.

A Service of Healing
Sunday, November 22, at 10 a.m. in the Sanctuary

Next Sunday, there will be one service at 10 a.m. in the Sanctuary. This is will be a Service of Healing on the Reign of Christ and the Twenty-Sixth Sunday after Pentecost. Rev. Becky David will preach.

Hanging of the Greens
Sunday, November 22, at 11 a.m. throughout the Church

Next Sunday, gather after the 10 a.m. service in Parish Hall. Crews will be formed with some people staying downstairs to decorate and the rest will go upstairs to decorate.

First Serves
Sunday, November 22, at 11 a.m. in Classroom D

Help our neighbors enjoy a bountiful Thanksgiving family dinner this year by donating Thanksgiving pantry items for the Broad Street Food Pantry at Broad Street Presbyterian Church. In addition to Thanksgiving dinner products (except canned pumpkin), items like pasta, cereal, canned tuna and chicken are also requested.

Please donate packaged goods at the giving tree through November 22. We will assemble boxes for delivery after the 10 a.m. service.

Please note the pantry's request of no canned pumpkin!

Adult Education
Sunday, November 29, at 10 a.m. in Classroom C

Join us as Antoinette Koolemans Beynen presents St. Nicholas & Santa: Journey from European Bishop to Jolly Christmas Symbol and the December traditions that go with him.

Discover the Dutch December celebrations centering on Saint Nicolas (Sinterklaas) that reach back across the centuries and which are still practiced in many European countries. Learn where these traditions originated, how they've been celebrated over the years, and how the patron saint of Russia evolved into the shopping mall staple we know today. Dutch born Antoinette will share what is known about him along with her own childhood traditions and samples of Dutch St. Nicolas holiday baked goods.

Justice & Mercy Missions

Upcoming missions will be:

Nov. 15 - Good Samaritan Fund
Nov. 22 - Bethlehem on Broad Street
Nov. 29 - World Central Kitchen

First Church is a Faith Community

† Called together by God, the Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer of life, to worship, pray and serve;
† Led by Jesus Christ, our Teacher and Savior, to learn the faith and welcome all God's children;
† Empowered by the Holy Spirit to witness God's love and justice between ourselves, and throughout the world.

We covenant with the Lord Jesus Christ and one another, and bind ourselves in the presence of God to live together in all God's ways as revealed to us by the Holy Spirit and holy scripture. The church acknowledges that all members have the right of individual interpretation of the principles of the Christian faith and respects them in their honest convictions. In accordance with the teaching of our Lord, the church recognizes two sacraments: Baptism and Holy Communion.

Open and Affirming Statement

We, the members of First Congregational Church, United Church of Christ, Columbus, Ohio, welcome and affirm all. We believe we are all created in God's image and called to love our neighbors as Jesus loves us. We believe we are many members, but one body in Christ, called to unite all people in God's love. We are a community seeking God's presence and love in our lives. We seek to unite persons of all ages, races, nationalities, ethnicities, sexual orientations, sexes, gender identities and expressions, family structures, mental, intellectual and physical conditions, economic circumstances, political, theological and faith backgrounds. Together in our diversity, and being empowered and directed by the Holy Spirit, we will "do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with our God." (Micah 6:8)
